Failure to Comply

Failure by a Member or Participant to comply with the expected standard of conduct set out within this policy constitutes an infraction and may result in disciplinary action and the imposition of a sanction in accordance within the guidelines set forth in this policy.

Reporting a Class 2, 3, 4 Infraction

Any individual (the Complainant) may report to The Axemen President a complaint of an infraction by a Member or Participant (the Respondent). Such complaint must be in writing and must be made within 5 days of the alleged infraction.

Upon receiving a complaint, the President will provide it immediately to the Discipline Committee, or his/her designate if the President is not available or not able to act in this capacity.

The President (or designate) may determine that an alleged infraction is of such seriousness as to warrant suspension of the Member, or removal of the Participant, pending investigation, a hearing and a disciplinary decision.

Upon receiving a complaint, the President (or designate) will review the complaint and may:

1. Dismiss the complaint if he or she considers it to be trivial or vexatious.
2. Determine that the complaint does not fall within the jurisdiction of this policy, and refer to it the appropriate body having jurisdiction.
3. Determine that the matter relates to a conflict within a Team or between Axemen teams and has not first been addressed using the Axemen Conflict Resolution process whereupon the President may refer the matter to the Complainant's Team Designate for resolution pursuant to that policy.
4. Direct that the infraction be dealt with informally as a minor infraction.

5. Refer the matter to the Discipline Committee to be dealt with formally as a minor infraction; or
6. Refer the matter to the Discipline Committee to be dealt with formally as a major infraction.

Disciplinary Procedures

All informal disciplinary situations involving minor infractions will be dealt with by the appropriate person having authority over the Member or Participant involved: this person may include, but is not restricted to, a coach, official, director, officer, volunteer or staff member.

When assigned by the President to informally address a complaint of a minor infraction, the appropriate person having authority over the Member or Participant involved shall:

1. Determine if an investigation is required to ascertain whether an infraction has in fact occurred,
2. Determine if the issue has followed the Axemen Issue Resolution Process outlined in the Communication and Issue Resolution Policy.
3. If deemed necessary, conduct a fair and impartial investigation of the matter and provide a written report of investigation findings to the Complainant, the Respondent, and the President

Upon the facts of the case as originally presented, or upon the results of an investigation, determine if an infraction has in fact occurred,

Where it is determined that an infraction has occurred, decide the appropriate disciplinary sanction and issue a written decision to the Complainant, the Respondent, and the President

Where it is determined that an infraction has not occurred, obtain the President's concurrence, then advise the Complainant and Respondent that the complaint has been dismissed, with reasons.

Where a disciplinary sanction has been imposed, coordinate the application of the sanction with other Axemen representatives as necessary, and monitor compliance by those upon whom the sanction has been imposed.

The Axemen Discipline Committee shall consist of three members:

- * Discipline director
- * Relevant division co-ordinator
- * Member of the executive.

The executive member will be appointed by the president prior to the start of each season and serve for one year. The president has the option to re-appoint the same executive member to continue in the role for subsequent seasons.

The Discipline Committee shall deal with all complaints of major infractions within the jurisdiction of this policy and may deal with complaints of minor infractions if so directed by the President.

Depending on the circumstances of the complaint, the Discipline Committee may authorize an investigation into the alleged infraction.

The Discipline Committee will determine the format of the disciplinary process, which may involve an oral hearing in person, a hearing based on written submissions, or a combination of these methods.

The Member or Participant will be given reasonable notice of the format as well as day, time and place of the hearing; will receive a copy of the Investigation Report if an investigation was carried out; may be accompanied by a representative; and will have the right to present evidence and argument before the Discipline Committee.

After hearing the matter, the Discipline Committee will reach a decision as to whether an infraction has occurred and if it has, what the sanction should be. The Discipline Committee will issue a written decision, including reasons, for distribution to the Member or Participant, the complainant and the President.

Where the conduct being reviewed by this policy is of a sensitive nature, Axemen Lacrosse Club will keep all proceedings under the policy confidential, except where disclosure is ordered as part of the sanction, is required by law, or is in the best interests of the public.

In fulfilling its duties, and with the approval of the Executive Committee, the Discipline Committee may obtain independent advice.

Axemen reserves the right, and at times may be obligated to consult with, and report to CDLA or ADLA any information regarding complaints filed, investigations, disciplinary hearings, and any resulting sanctions.

Disciplinary Sanctions

Penalties for minor infractions may include a verbal warning, written warning, request for an apology, service or other voluntary contribution to Axemen Lacrosse Club, removal of certain privileges of membership for a designated period of time, and/or removal from the current activity.

All to be submitted directly to the President of the Axemen.

Any consideration of an appeal after the 72 hour window has closed, will be at the sole discretion of the President, or designate.

Grounds for Appeal

Appeals may only be heard if sufficient grounds exist surrounding the decision-maker or decision made (irrespective of the events precipitating the decision), as detailed below:

- Decision-maker did not have authority or jurisdiction as set out in Axemen governing documents, to make such decision;
- Decision-maker failed to follow procedures as laid out in the bylaws or approved Policies of Axemen, in making the decision;
- Decision was influenced by bias;

If the appeal is denied due to insufficient grounds, then written notice shall be provided to the Appellant, and the $200 Appeal fee returned.

This decision is at the sole discretion of the President or the President's designate, and may not be appealed.

Appeals Panel

Should the President find sufficient grounds to proceed, then he/she shall appoint an Appeals Panel (the 'Panel') within 7 days of having received the original notice of appeal.

The Panel will be comprised of 3 people who have no personal relationship or common interest with the affected parties; and are free of any actual or perceived bias or conflict surrounding the Appeal.

The Panel's members shall select from themselves a Chairperson who will be authorized to arrange all preliminary matters of the appeal (ie: date and location of hearing; deadline for exchange of documents, clarification of issues in dispute; procedural matters; order and procedure of hearing; remedies being sought, identification of witnesses, and any other matter which may assist in expediting the appeal proceedings).

All affected parties may be notified of these preliminary matters via email by the Chairperson.

There shall be no communication between Panel members and the parties except in the presence of, or by copy to, the other parties; and Decisions shall be by majority vote, where the Chairperson carries one vote.

Expectations of Parents

Each parent and Axemen Volunteer including team managers is expected to be familiar with these values and their place in the Axemen organization.

The Axemen Lacrosse Association is dedicated to introducing the game of lacrosse to young men and women and their families. We expect the pursuit of excellence will be accompanied by appropriate sports behavior and respect for every individual as described in the Axemen Code of Core Values.

- Children participate in organized sports for their enjoyment. Make it fun and support them.
- Encourage good sportsmanship by demonstrating positive support for all players, coaches, and officials at every game, practice, or other youth sports event.
- Encourage your child to play by the rules. Remember, children learn best by example, so applaud good plays of both teams.
- Emphasize skill development and practices and how they benefit your young athlete. De-emphasize games and competition in the lower age groups.
- Know and study the rules of the game, and support the officials on and off the floor. This approach will help in the development and support of the game. Any criticism of the officials only hurts the game.
- Recognize the importance of volunteer coaches. They are important to the development of your child and the sport. Communicate with them and support them.
- Remember the game is for the children, not the adults.
- Axemen have a Zero Tolerance Policy, requires all parents/spectators to maintain sportsmanlike behavior and preserve the educational atmosphere before, during and after all games, practices and Axemen events (practices, meetings, etc.).

Expectations of Coaches

Working with young people is both a responsibility and a privilege; the importance of this position of authority and leadership cannot be underestimated. The following is a list of examples of a coach's responsibilities.

- All coaches will attend all meetings held by the Axemen Director of Coaching.
- Conduct an organizational meeting for parents and players prior to the first game of the season.
- Organize practices that are fun and challenging for your players. Familiarize yourself with the rules, techniques and strategies of hockey; encourage all your players to play as a team.
- Coaching/Mentoring
- Encourage participation of every player in practices and games.
- Emphasize good sportsmanship on and off the ice.
- Stress the importance of teamwork
- Treat all players equally
- Stress FUN and skill development over winning
- Provide each player with fair and equitable floor time
- Adjust to personal needs and problems of players; be a good listener; never verbally or physically abuse a player or official; give all players the opportunity to improve their skills, gain confidence, and develop self-esteem; teach them the basics.
- Encourage Healthy Lifestyles
- Help players develop physically by learning skills, improving conditioning, develop good health habits, and avoiding injuries
- Be concerned with the overall development of your players. Stress good health habits and clean living.
- Refrain from use of tobacco products while in the presence of players.
- Refrain from use of alcoholic beverages prior to practices and/or games.
- Lead by example - maintain a positive attitude towards referees, parent, players, and other coaches.
- Be generous with your praise when it is deserved; be consistent and honest; be fair and just; do not criticize players publicly; learn to be a more effective communicator and coach; do not yell at players.
- Coaches should never teach their players tactics or skills designed to circumvent the intent of the rulebook and the standards of fair play. The rules exist to protect players and provide a common standard by which final results will be determined.
- Coaches should be sensitive to the impropriety of private meetings with on-ice officials before, during, or after the contest, without the presence of a representative of the opposing team.

Each coach or administrator is expected to be familiar with these values and their place in the organization.
