Scoring and Game sheets 2015

All teams novice thru midget will be able to access the GELC website for online scoring of games. There is an expectation that all games will be scored by the winning team following the game. In addition it is a requirement that score sheets be faxed to the office at 780-463-0591. The losing team may certainly update the website as well if the winning team has not done it.

You may also scan the score sheet as a pdf or take a jpeg picture of it and forward that picture or scan to the following email address

gelcadm@telus.net

The subject line of the email should read Novice (appropriate level) then the game number of the game.

All game sheets are still required for all games for the standings to be official. If a game sheet is not received within 48 hours of the game the game shall be entered by the GELC office as a 0-0 game.

All game sheets with discipline on must be sent to the GELC office and to the club discipline director for confirmation that the suspension has been served. You can find the Discipline reps email address in the front section of the handbook.

In all cases of dispute, in regards to suspensions served the provision of documentation is born by the team and club not by the GELC.

Tyke and mini tyke game sheets are expected to be faxed, or scanned and sent in as above, but this is required to be done by the home team of the game.
