

Barry Ennis Memorial Pond Hockey Award

for participants in the Red Deer Pond Hockey League

with support from

Who Was Barry Ennis?

Barry Ennis was the twin brother of Brian Ennis, founder of the Red Deer Pond Hockey League.

Barry passed away from esophageal cancer in April of 2007, the same month Brian received the RBC Hockey Leader Award. Barry was an incredible man who worked as a carpenter in Delburne, Alberta, and area when he passed away. Barry is remembered for being dedicated to his family, his strong work ethic, honesty and a great sense of humor.

Upon receipt of the RBC Hockey Leader Award and $10,000 to be used towards a charity of his choice, Brian wanted to create a legacy to honor his brother and created the Barry Ennis Memorial Pond Hockey Award.

Since its inception, the award has grown considerably with the generous support of Red Deer Pond Hockey League, The Marchinko family and several individual donors.

Who Qualifies?

This award is open to any player (past or present) in the Red Deer Pond Hockey League who is entering into a recognized post-secondary institution. The amount of the award may vary from year to year but shall not be less than $500.00.
