Initiation Jamboree

Rules and Regulations:

- All games will be played as per VIAHA and BC Hockey Rules, and any other rules dictated by our home association.
- Each team will play four 60min (½ ice – 4 teams on the ice at once) games: 2 min warm up, 2 – 25 min periods (run time), 5 min puck shoot out (end of game) and 3 min handshake.
- The scoreboard will not be used and goals will not be tallied.
- A coach from the designated “Home Team” will be required to go onto the ice to help with the players. It is mandatory in our association that coaches must wear a helmet when on the ice.
- Every 2 min. someone in the time keeper’s box will sound the buzzer signalling a new shift: The new shift begins with a face off.
- There will be no playoff games; this jamboree is for ‘Fun’.
- As per arena staff: change room keys will be signed out no earlier than 45min before game start.
- At the end of the game, players and coaches will line up at center ice, remove their gloves and shake hands with their opponents and coaches.

Sportsmanship:

- Coaches, parents and spectators are to use positive feedback to the players and team staff. No abuse of any kind will be tolerated (on or off the ice). Anyone caught being abusive will be asked to leave the facility, including the parking lot.
