

The PCBL Vision

Parkland Community Basketball League is a community based volunteer organization dedicated to providing personal and technical growth opportunities through flexible basketball programs. These programs are conducted in a safe and rewarding environment fostering a commitment to team and community.

Mission Statement

Teaching athletes to conduct themselves with honesty and integrity, putting team before self, striving for excellence, persevering through adversity, and to compete with respect, dignity and pride is what the Parkland Community Basketball League works to achieve with all participants.

The Values of PCBL

- We value the dignity of all individuals, and demonstrate this by providing a safe and welcoming environment to all participants.
- We value the power of teamwork.
- We believe in equal opportunity for all participants to play.
- We value the development of life skills, self-fulfillment and self-discipline.
- We believe in having fun and enjoying the game while respecting teammates, coaches, officials and opponents.
- We value and promote the game of basketball through partner development that aligns with and respects our mission and values.
- We believe in creating and maintaining a positive, supportive environment for all participants, coaches and volunteers.
- We value and encourage volunteer participation in our organization.
- We believe in both skill and social development through exercise and fostering a life-long love of the game.
- We believe in programming that is flexible and available to all who wish to experience the game of basketball.
- We believe in an inclusive, safe and welcoming culture that nurtures and respects all members, creates positive memories, lasting friendships, and a sense of belonging to our basketball family.

The PCBL Board of Directors are committed to fostering a sport and volunteer environment that treats all individuals with respect and dignity regardless of gender, gender identification, race, religion or personal lifestyle choices.
