

QEMHW Parents info

Welcome to the 54th edition of the Quikcard Edmonton Minor Hockey Week tournament. This is the world's longest consecutive running tournament.

There will be 779 games played over 10 days on 32 sheets of ice.

There will be 71 finals played on January 21st and 22nd at the Terwillegar Arenas.

There is a $5 admission fee for the tournament; single game admission is $3. The $5 button also gets you free coffee at McDonalds throughout the tournament.

All of the individuals working at the games are volunteers (time keepers, button sellers, checkers, Arena Managers etc).

All of the Referees VOLUNTEER their time during the tournament.

If you are volunteering during the tournament we thank you, if you are looking for volunteer information please contact your local zone. (Please note, volunteers must be minimum 18 yrs old to work in the timekeepers box)

If you are going to Terwillegar for the finals please be aware that parking can be tight, at any one time there will be at least 16 teams, their coaches and supporters at the arenas.

At no time are parents allowed on the ice surface, this includes the finals. At the end of each final game players will be lined up in front of the benches for photo opportunities. Parents are allowed on the bench at the conclusion of the game.

Winning team pictures will be in the spring edition of the Edmonton Hockey Magazine. There will be no supplement in the Journal or Sun newspapers this year. Pictures taken during the tournament can be purchased through Epic Photography and the link can be found on the QEMHW website under the Parents and Athletes menu by clicking on "Capture the memories".

Cheer loud and enjoy the tournament.

Thanks, QEMHW Committee.
