League Focus

In the Dutch 3-on-3 League, we strive to give young athletes the opportunity to grow as basketball players in a non-traditional setting. We provide a structured, low-pressure environment where players can experience and learn the game in a new and fun way! With music, weekly prizes, and lots of game experience, the Dutch League is all about a positive player experience!

Benefits of 3-on-3

3-on-3 is an excellent way for young players to develop their skills on both ends of the floor. With more space to operate, players touch the ball more often and see a greater number of 1-on-1 situations. With no sets or systems, players learn to read their opponents and react accordingly.

“Dutch saw basketball as a way to bring people together. This league is working hard to give athletes a place to enjoy and develop their game”

- Jordan Baker (League Director and player under Coach Holland from '06-'09)
