Part 2 – Vulnerable Sector Search (if applicable)

A vulnerable sector search is required for subjects who will be responsible for the well-being of children, the elderly or disabled persons. The primary purpose of a vulnerable sector search is to confirm that the subject has not received a records suspension (pardon) for a sex crimes related conviction.**

I consent to a search being made in the automated criminal records retrieval system maintained by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police to determine if I have been convicted of, and been granted a pardon or record suspension for any of the sexual offences that are listed in the schedule to the Criminal Records Act. I understand that, as a result of giving this consent, if I am suspected of being the person named in a criminal record for one of the sexual offences listed in the schedule to the Criminal Records Act in respect of which a pardon or record suspension was granted or issued, that record may be provided by the Commissioner of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police to the Solicitor General of Canada, who may then disclose all or part of the information contained in that record to a police force or other authorized body. That police force or authorized body will then disclose that information to me.

1. Have you ever been fingerprinted for a Vulnerable Sector Search in the past? ☐ Yes ☐ No

2. Have you ever been investigated for a sexual related offence? ☐ Yes ☐ No

3. List all cities / provinces of residence other than Edmonton in the last 5 years:
Location: _____
Location: _____
- You must list the age(s) of the children or describe the disability or circumstances of dependence of the vulnerable persons:

Part 3 - Waiver

I hereby give consent to the Edmonton Police Service to conduct a search for:

A. Criminal convictions, conditional and absolute discharges and other related information identified in Canada's National Repository of Criminal Records.

B. Criminal convictions and/or upcoming court for criminal charges before the Alberta courts identified in the Justice Online Information Network.

C. Current court and/or prohibition orders and current out of province outstanding warrants identified in the Canadian Police Information Centre.

D. Information obtained from police file(s) in which the applicant was the subject of a criminal police investigation and charges were laid. Information may be released where charges were not laid in situations where a risk to public safety exists. Please be advised that an applicant listed as the subject of a police file(s) has not been convicted of the disclosed occurrence(s).

I further agree that I remise, release, and forever discharge the Edmonton Police Service, the Chief of Police of the Edmonton Police Service, the Edmonton Police Commission, and their administrators, successors, assigns, agents, officers, servants and employees from any and all manner of actions, suits, debts, dues, general damages, special damages, pecuniary damages, costs, interest, claims and demands of every nature and kind at law or in equity under any statute, including but not limited to direct or consequential loss, occasioned by me or my legal representatives, heirs, assigns or agents, arising or in any way related to the police information check process described above.

I understand that any information provided by me for the purposes of this police information check, including fingerprints, may be used or disclosed for law enforcement purposes. The information collected on this form and as part of the police information check process will be collected, used, and disclosed in accordance with the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act or as otherwise provided by law.

By signing this document, I have fully informed myself and understand the above waivers content and meaning and I declare that the information provided is accurate and understand that the information may be verified through police information databases if required. This must be signed in front of a witness who must be an Edmonton Police Service staff member or volunteer, or a designated person.
