

Midget AAA Head Coach Position

Sherwood Park Minor Baseball Association

Job Description

Sherwood Park Minor Baseball Association is looking for a skilled head coach to work with our Midget AAA team for the 2019 season. The successful candidate will have a passion and respect for the game, great communication skills and a focus on player development.

Critical Tasks

Finding and using the teachable moments to develop players – both in hard skills and personal development (discipline, team work, leadership)

Development of lineups, rotations, on and off field coaching

Facilitation of practice and games (including tournaments)

Some administration – communications with parents, evaluation of players

Ability to work within the team environment and within the organizational structure and supports of SPMBA.

Experience

Previous Head Coach experience, minimum 3 years. Well qualified Assistant Coaches with sufficient experience are welcome to apply. Must meet the minimum NCCP and other Coaching Requirements as defined by Baseball Alberta.

Previous player experience at high level ball is an asset.

Job Type

The position will start shortly before evaluations begin in February and will likely consist of 1 -2 practice sessions per week. The Head Coach will participate in the evaluation process. Once the season begins in April, the requirement will be based on the practice schedule usually 3-4 nights per week at a minimum and games/tournaments every weekend. The completion of the regular season will be in August with a potential to move on to Nationals in late August.

Honoraria

This is a paid coaching position and may include performance targets as required. Honoraria ranges based on experience, $5,000 - $7,500 for the season.

Eligible travel expenses (including a per diem) are covered by the team/association.

Interested candidates please forward a resume, inclusive of your coaching experience and valid credentials to vprep@spmba.ca All candidates must provide an up to date CRC and IRC prior to the start of the season and the completion of an agreement.
