

Power Your Fundraiser with Interstate Batteries

Want to CHARGE your next fundraiser? Well look no further because we have fundraising products that people use every day! Wondering what everyone could possibly need on a daily basis? Batteries! In fact, the average Canadian home has 21 different battery-powered devices like flashlights, remote controls, smoke detectors, toys and game controllers.

Interstate's practical and profitable fundraising program uses everyday products to help all types of groups succeed! Does your little league team want to knock their funds out of the park? How about your hockey club, youth club or a special school project? Our program will give them something to cheer about!

Since 1952, Interstate has enjoyed a reputation for top-quality products, business innovations and unparalleled service. We've helped organizations successfully raise funds with alkaline batteries and household items for years and the program keeps getting more powerful—the battery fundraising potential is endless!

WHO ARE WE?

Enjoying a 58-year reputation for top-quality products, business innovation and outrageously dependable service, Interstate Batteries is the No. 1 replacement brand battery in North America. Today Interstate Batteries is over a billion-dollar, privately-held corporation that has the agility to expand to new market demands while maintaining our good old-fashioned business principles.

As Interstate Batteries faces the future, we'll stay true to our founding principles and continue to uphold our reputation to our customers: #1 in Batteries.

Interstate Batteries sells over 16,000 different kinds of batteries, from AA alkalines to critical power solutions. Combine professional battery services, recycling programs and the largest battery distribution network in North America, and you'll find Interstate has EVERY BATTERY FOR EVERY NEED™.
