

Awards Nominations

Annual Awards

Each year Squash Alberta will collect nominations for four (4) annual awards. Nominations typically open in January/February and are awarded in April/May. All award recipients, with the exception of the Special Achievement Award, must be members in good standing of Squash Alberta to be accepted.

Award Categories:

President's Award

Best exemplified by the qualities of sound judgment, perseverance, vision, and generosity, the President's Award is presented to a volunteer in a leadership role who has made an outstanding, sustained, and diverse contribution to the promotion and development of the game of Squash in Alberta.

Distinguished Volunteer Award

Best exemplified by the qualities of altruism, kindness, and enthusiasm, the Distinguished Volunteer Award is presented to non-professional player, coach, or official to recognize an exceptional contribution to the game of Squash in Alberta.

Special Achievement Award

Generally related to the organization of an event or strategic partnership, the Special Achievement Award is presented to an individual, group, or business to recognize an exceptional and specific contribution to the promotion and development of the game of Squash in Alberta.

Sport Ambassador Award

Best exemplified by the qualities of honesty, integrity, and humility, the Sport Ambassador Award is presented to a player, coach, or official who has reflected and epitomized the sportsmanlike character of the game of Squash over a sustained period.
