ANNUAL AWARDS

RULES AND CRITERIA

Approved: 30 May, 2009

1.0 INTRODUCTION:

At the end of each season, a number of awards are presented to players who have participated in Association programs. These awards are usually presented at a year-end awards ceremony. This statement is intended to:

- Describe the general rules relating to awards;
- Identify the awards which are available for presentation;
- Describe the criteria or factors which will be considered when identifying worthy recipients;
- Describe the process for determining award recipients; and
- Identify the roles of various volunteers in selecting award recipients.

2.0 DEFINITIONS

“League” refers to the League Program.

3.0 GENERAL

The following considerations shall apply to the selection of award recipients;

- The Association may present awards at the following levels: team, division, league and Association.
- A player is eligible for a Division award only if he or she is playing in his or her appropriate division or playing-up. Overage players may be eligible only for a team award.
- All team winners will be recognized at the award ceremony and the Division winner will be selected from the team winners.
- All team winners will be suitably acknowledged and the Division winner will be presented with an award which recognizes his or her achievement.
- Players in the Initiation and Novice divisions are eligible for only one award per season.
- Players in the Atom Division and above are eligible to receive more than one award. However, the awards should be broadly distributed among team and division players where possible.
- Nominations for Association awards may be presented to any governor or member of the Executive Committee who will forward them to the Awards Committee. Nominations should be in writing and support the criteria of the award.

- Year-end awards shall be presented in two separate events:
  - Initiation and Novice; and
  - Atom, Pee wee, Bantam and Midget

4.0 AWARDS AND CRITERIA

Association awards recognize demonstrated merit into the following general categories:

- A specific team and Division;
- On an Association-wide basis; or
- Special awards in memory of special persons.

4.1 Team Awards

The Team Esso Awards (medallions) are available to each team in each division for the following categories:

- Most Dedicated Player
- Most Improved Player
- Most Sportsmanlike Player

Both male and female players on a team are eligible for Esso awards. These awards should be presented at a team function rather than at the Annual Awards Event.

Award	Each Team	All Divisions
Most Sportsmanlike Player	x
Most Improved Player	x
Most Valuable Player	x

4.2 Division Awards

Division awards available to Atom, Pee wee, Bantam and Midget players are as follows:

Award	Team Nominee	Division Award
Forward of the Year	x	x
Defenseman of the Year	x	x
Most Valuable Player	x	x
Goalie of the Year	x	x

Awards available to female players, in Junior and Senior categories, are as follows:

Award	Junior Award	Senior Award
Forward of the Year	x	x
Defenseman of the Year	x	x
Most Valuable Player	x	x
Goalie of the Year	x	x

The Junior category includes players from the Atom and Pee wee divisions and the Senior category includes players from the Bantam and Midget divisions. Due to the limited number of female players, awards may be presented without identifying a nominee from each team. As these awards span two divisions, the awards should reflect the consensus decision of the coaches and governors from both divisions.
