For complete rules on Two Team Players, please see the RO Operating Manual (Membership Services)

1. A player may register on a Provincial Level TRF and also be registered on a regional level TRF either in the same or in a different association.
2. A player may play in the Provincial Championships and the Regional Championships
3. The option of priority is between the two teams as defined in this agreement between both coaches and player/parent. The general hierarchy is Championships, Tournaments, Games, Practices, Meetings then Social Activities unless agreed upon by all parties. If all concerned agree when the hierarchy is different in a given situation, the agreed solution can be approved.
4. Any amendments to this agreement must be initialed by all concerning parties and the Membership Services Coordinator(s) and G&T Coordinator(s) of that region.
5. Disputes over team loyalties and interpretations of the agreement will be brought to Membership Services and G&T Coordinators for resolution.
6. A player may participate on only one team, in one tournament on any given weekend.
