8. Membership in the Society is not transferable.

9. Membership in the Society shall cease:
 - a. upon death; or
 - b. if the member resigns by written notice to the Society; or
 - c. if the member ceases to qualify for membership in accordance with these by-laws, or
 - d. if, by a vote of the majority of the members of the society or a majority vote of the Directors of the Society at a meeting duly called and for which notice of the proposed action has been given, the Member's membership in the Society has been terminated, or
 - e. membership may be cancelled because of actions detrimental to the interests of the ECJLL. This can be done after a majority decision of the officers of the Executive. The team whose membership has been revoked has the right to submit a written appeal to the ECJLL Appeals Committee. All decisions will be subsequently reviewed at the next general meeting or at a special meeting called for that purpose.
10. The members of ECJLL may repeal, amend or add to these by-laws by a special resolution at a special meeting or at an Annual General Meeting (AGM) provided such a resolution is circulated in writing along with the notice of the meeting at least 30 days prior to the meeting. Notification of a proposal to submit amendments must be provided to the Secretary followed by a written proposal. Such resolutions shall require a 75% majority of those in attendance and voting. No by-law or amendment to by-laws shall take effect until the Registrar approves of it under the Societies Act.
11. No funds of the society shall be paid to or be available for the personal benefit of any member.

Members' Meetings

12. Every elected member and each team, subject to by-law 4, shall have one vote and no more and there shall not be proxy voting.
13. At each Division meeting, only members of that Division can vote on matters pertaining solely to that Division. All members may vote on matters pertaining to the League.
14. A general or special meeting of the members, either in a specific Division or the League, may be held at any time and shall be called:
 - a. if requested by the Commissioner;
 - b. if requested by a Deputy Commissioner for that Division;
 - c. if requested by a majority of the directors; or
 - d. if requested in writing by 5 of the members.
15. Notice to members is required for general or special meetings. The notice must:
 - a. specify the date, place and time of the meeting;
 - b. be given to the members seven (7) days prior to the meeting;
 - c. be given to the members by e-mail, telephone, fax and/or other electronic means;
 - d. specify the nature of business, such as the intention to propose a special resolution; and
 - e. the non-receipt of notice by any member shall not invalidate the proceedings.
16. An annual general meeting shall be held within three months after every fiscal year end and notice is required which must:
 - a. specify the date, place and time of the meeting;
 - b. be given to the members thirty (30) days prior to the meeting;
 - c. be given by e-mail, telephone, fax and/or other electronic means;
 - d. specify the intention to propose a special resolution; and
 - e. the non-receipt of notice by any member shall not invalidate the proceedings.

17. At the annual general meeting of the Society the following items of business shall be dealt with and shall be deemed ordinary business and all other business transacted shall be deemed special business:
 - a. minutes of the previous annual general meeting;
 - b. business arising from the minutes;
 - c. consideration of the annual report of the directors and officers;
 - d. reports of the member teams;
 - e. committee reports;
 - f. consideration of the annual financial report of the Society;
 - g. the appointment of auditors for the ensuing year;

 - i. amendments to the Memorandum of Association and By-Laws (if required);
 - j. election of directors and/or officers (if required);
 - k. announcements;
 - l. questions; and
 - m. adjournment.
18. Quorum shall consist of 2 elected members and 2/3 of the member teams. No business shall be conducted at any meeting unless a quorum is present to open the meeting and, upon request, before any vote.
 - a. If a meeting is convened as per by-law 12(a) or 12(b) and quorum is not present within one-half hour from the time appointed for the meeting, it shall be adjourned to such time and place as a majority of the members present shall decide. Notice of the new meeting shall be given and at the adjourned meeting the members present shall constitute quorum only for the purpose of winding up the Society.
 - b. If a meeting is convened at the request of the member as per 12(c) and quorum is not present within one-half hour from the time appointed for the meeting, it shall be dissolved.
19. The Commissioner, or in their absence, the Deputy Commissioner, or in the absence of both of them, any member appointed from among those present, shall preside as Chair at members' meetings.
20. Where there is an equality of votes, the Commissioner shall have the deciding vote.
21. The Chair may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn any meeting. No business shall be transacted at the subsequent meeting other than the business left unfinished at the adjourned meeting unless notice of such new business is given to the members.
22. At any meeting a declaration by the Chair that a resolution has been carried is sufficient unless a poll is demanded by at least three members. If a poll is demanded it shall be held by show of hands or by secret ballot as the Chair may decide.

Directors

23. Any member of the society shall be eligible to be elected a director for the Society and a director of the society shall be a member.
24. The number of directors shall be 5. The subscribers to the Memorandum of Association of the Society shall be the first directors of the Society.
25. Directors shall retire from office at the end of each annual general meeting at which their successors are elected. Retiring directors shall be eligible for re-election. Directors shall be elected to two year terms, with one-half of the directors elected each year. The following Directors will also be Officers of the Executive and, if any of the Executive positions are left vacant following the AGM, the new Executive members may assume the responsibility of filling these positions and appoint capable and willing members in good standing to fill the vacant positions:

- a. Commissioner. The Commissioner shall be elected every 2 years at the AGM and shall assume office at the start of the next membership year beginning on odd years. All members may vote for Commissioner.
 - b. Deputy Commissioner (2). There shall be one (1) Deputy Commissioner elected for each Division. The Deputy Commissioners shall be elected every 2 years at the AGM and shall assume office at the start of the next membership year beginning on odd years.
 - c. Treasurer (2). There shall be one (1) Treasurer elected for each Division. The Treasurer shall be elected every 2 years at the AGM and shall assume office at the start of the next membership year beginning on even years.
 - d. Secretary (2). There shall be one (1) Secretary elected for each Division. The Secretary shall be elected every 2 years at the AGM and shall assume office at the start of the next membership year beginning on even years.
 - e. Past Commissioner. The Past Commissioner shall be appointed after the member has served the term as Commissioner. The Past Commissioner will advise and guide the current Commissioner and will not have a vote.
26. a. If a director resigns their office or ceases to be a member in the Society, their office as director shall be vacated and the vacancy may be filled for the unexpired portion of the term by the board of directors from among the members of the Society.
- b. If the Commissioner submits their resignation prior to expiration of the normal term of office, the members shall appoint one of the Deputy Commissioners as the Commissioner on an interim basis until it is possible to hold an annual general meeting and elect a new Commissioner.
- c. Deputy Commissioner becomes the interim Commissioner as above or if a Deputy Commissioner or other Executive Officer submits their resignation prior to expiration of the normal term of office, the Executive Committee shall select an eligible and willing replacement to fill that position on an interim basis until it is possible to hold a general meeting for the purpose of electing a new Executive Officer.
- d. The process of replacing resigning Executive Officers shall be recorded in minutes of the Executive Committee meeting concerned.
27. The members may, by special resolution, remove any director and appoint another person to complete the term of office.
28. The management of the Society is the responsibility of the directors. In particular, the directors may engage a General Manager, and determine their duties, responsibilities and remuneration.
29. The directors may appoint an executive committee and other committees as they see fit.
30. Directors who have, or could reasonably be seen to have, a conflict of interest, have a duty to declare this interest. The declaration should be made to the members:
- a. upon nomination; and
 - b. if serving as a director, when the possibility of a conflict is realized.
31. A conflict of interest does not prevent a member from serving as a director provided that he/she withdraws from the decision making on matters pertaining to that interest. The withdrawal should be recorded in the minutes.

Directors' Meetings

32. References in this section to the "board of directors" or "meetings" refers to the League, and/or each Division.
33. The board of directors shall meet no less than 1 time each year.

34. A meeting of the directors may be held at the close of every annual general meeting without notice for the purpose of electing officers. For all other board meetings, notice is required and must:
 - a. specify the date, place and time of the meeting;
 - b. be given to the directors seven (7) days prior to the meeting;
 - c. be given to the directors by e-mail, telephone, fax and/or other electronic means;
 - d. the non-receipt of notice by any director shall not invalidate the proceedings; and
 - e. Notice can be waived for board meetings with the unanimous approval of the Board.
35. Quorum shall consist of 5 of the directors. No business shall be conducted at any meeting of the board of directors unless a quorum is present to open the meeting and, upon request, before any vote.
36. The Commissioner or, in their absence, the Deputy Commissioner or, in the absence of both of them, any director appointed from among the directors shall preside as Chair of the Board.
37. At directors' meetings, where there is an equality of votes the Chair will have the deciding vote.

Finance

51. The fiscal year end of the Society shall be the 30th day of September and the AGM would then be within 3 months of that date:
- a. The directors shall annually present to the members a written report on the financial position of the Society. The report shall be in the form of a balance sheet showing its assets, liabilities and equity, and
 - b. A statement of its income and expenditure in the preceding fiscal year.
52. A copy of the financial report shall be signed by the auditor or by two directors.
53. A signed copy of the financial report shall be filed with the Registrar within fourteen (14) days after each annual meeting.

54. An auditor of the Society may be appointed by the members at the annual general meeting and, if the members fail to appoint an auditor, the director may do so. The purpose of the Audit Committee is to assist the Executive in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities by reviewing the financial information which will be provided to members and others, the systems of control which the Executive have established and the audit process. The members of the Society at a regular or AGM shall appoint an Auditor.
55. The Society may only borrow money as approved by a special resolution of the members.
56. The members may inspect the annual financial statements and minutes of membership and directors meetings at the registered office of the Society with one week's notice. All other books and records of the Society may be inspected by any members at any reasonable time within two days prior to the annual general meeting at the registered office of the Society.
57. Directors and officers shall serve without remuneration and shall not receive any profit from their positions. However, a director or officer may be paid reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.
58. The Society shall not make loans, guarantee loans or advance funds to any director.
59. The Executive must approve significant unforeseen operating expenditures that were not budgeted for. In cases where deviation from the approved budget is required, or unforeseen expenditures arise, the Executive may, dependent on the financial situation of the ECJLL, exercise discretion in commitment of ECJLL funds prior to formal approval. The Executive, after reaching a consensus and spending the funds, shall subsequently table such items at the next general or Annual Meeting.
60. All revenue shall be deposited and all expenditures shall be made through a charter financial institution.
61. Contracts, deeds, bills of exchange and other instruments and documents may be executed on behalf of the Society by the Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner and the Secretary, or otherwise as prescribed by resolution of the membership.

Election of Officers

 - c. All officers of the executive shall be elected by the membership at each AGM.
 - d. The nominating committee shall provide its report to the members not less than 7 days prior to the annual meeting by providing a list, as complete as possible, of minimum of one nominee for each elected position. Notification shall be given in print, , by facsimile or distributed by electronic mail to each member at their last known address.
 - e. The membership may nominate individuals who are members in good standing for an Executive Officer position by providing notice to the Secretary not less than 30 days prior to the AGM. Such notice shall set out the name of the individual and the position for which the individual is nominated. The nomination must be signed by one member in good standing and must be signed by the nominee indicating that he or she is willing to accept the position if elected.
 - f. A list of all duly nominated candidates and notice of election shall be communicated to the membership not less than 7 days prior to the AGM.
 - g. Voting at the AGM for executive officers shall be by show of hands unless a motion is made for a secret ballot to be cast. To be declared elected a candidate must receive 50 percent plus one vote of the ballots cast. If no candidate receives the required number of votes on a ballot, the candidate with the fewest votes shall be eliminated and a further ballot held. This process shall continue until a winner is determined.

- h. Voting for elected positions shall be held in the order as they appear in the above paragraph.

Liability

- 63. No member of a society shall, in their individual capacity, be liable for any debt or liability of the society beyond the amount of any subscription, dues or fees payable by him to the society. The ECJLL shall not be responsible for any damage, injury or loss of property to any member of the League or guest player or guests or visitors taken to the premises of the ECJLL regardless of the reason or nature of such damage, loss or injury. In addition, every member, guest player, or visitor shall use the premises of the ECJLL and facilities at their own risk.

Amendments Of The Memorandum Of Association, By-Laws and Regulations

- 64. These governance Bylaws, as well as the Regulations, of the League may only be repealed or amended by a three fourths majority of the active members in good standing, by a Special Resolution, present at a Special or Annual General Meeting of the Society.
- 65. Governance, Bylaw and Regulation amendment(s) proposed by an Active Member(s) shall be submitted in writing to the Secretary of the ECJLL Council at least 35 days before being proposed at a Special Meeting or AGM of the League. Proposed amendments shall be distributed to the Membership and Council 30 days in advance of this meeting and shall contain the name of the submitter(s).
