JORDAN FRAM FUND

APPLICATION FOR FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

In order to help remove financial barriers to participation in hockey programs, Sudbury & District Girls Hockey Association administers funds intended for use by families in financial need.

Applications for financial assistance are reviewed by the Fram Fund committee of the SDGHA board and recommendations for assistance are subject to board approval. The number of applications approved and the financial contributions to each applicant are determined by the number of applications received as well as the available revenues each year.

To apply for the Fram Fund, please complete the section below and include a brief statement supporting the request. Applicants may be contacted if further information is required.
