GUIDELINES OF THE YOUTH PROVINCIALS DISCIPLINE

1. General

- 1.1. The following rules regarding disciplinary infractions shall immediately be in effect for all Players, Coaches, Team Officials, Association Officials, Spectators and Parents participating at the Alberta Basketball Youth Provincial Tournament. The YP Technical Committee at Youth Provincials reserves the right to interpret disciplinary matters in accordance with our philosophy and goals of the event. It is the responsibility of everyone connected with ABA, ABOA, CMBOA, EBOA, CMBA and EYBA to abide by these rules in their fullness.
- 1.2. Coaches, Managers, or Responsible Adults are responsible for the conduct of their Players and the conduct of Parents and Spectators associated with their team, before, during and after their games.
- 1.3. During the course of the game the Referees are the sole persons responsible for enforcing the current rules of Youth Provincials and other applicable rules.
- 1.4. The YP Technical Committee uses a progressive discipline process that may progress as follows:
 - 1.4.1. Warning to a Coach, Player, Parent or Spectator.
 - 1.4.2. Ejection and suspension of a Coach, Player, Parent or Spectator.
 - 1.4.3. Extended suspension of a Coach, Player, Parent or Spectator.
 - 1.4.4. Indefinite suspension of a Coach, Player, Parent or Spectator.
- 1.5. If required, any step(s) in the discipline process may be bypassed or eliminated in applying disciplinary action.
- 1.6. In the case of all disciplinary infractions, the YP Technical Committee, or person(s) designated by them, shall assume responsibility for determining necessary additional penalties, enforcing penalties and for any other disciplinary actions.
- 1.7. Depending on the severity, frequency and circumstances related to the infraction, a sequence of progressive discipline may be used at the discretion of the ABA and YP Technical Committee.
- 1.8. With the exception of minimum penalties specified in the 'Major Infractions' section, the YP Technical Committee may reduce or waive specified penalties at their discretion.
- 1.9. A Parent and/or Guardian as well as all Players and Coaches, Managers, Responsible Adults are required to read and understand the ABA Code of Conduct contained herein. The commitments in this Code are part of the rules of the Alberta Basketball Association. Individuals who have not agreed to read and abide by the ABA Code of Conduct may not be permitted to participate in any Association activity. The ABA Code of Conduct is posted online at www.abbasketball.ca/content/policies-and-procedures, for players, parents and coaches to refer to.

2. PROCEDURES REGARDING DISCIPLINE

- 2.1. Any Coach/director/volunteer or persons found to be involved in numerous altercations or discipline matters may be subject to a disciplinary review. This review may result in suspension or other disciplinary actions at subsequent ABA/CMBA/EYBA events.
- 2.2. Discipline may be dealt with by the YP Technical Committee. The YP Technical Committee will consist of
 - 2.2.1. Reagan Wood - ABA
 - 2.2.2. Dave Drabiuk - ABA
 - 2.2.3. Ken King - CMBA

2.2.4. Jay Ouellette - EYBA

- 2.3. All Players, Coaches, Managers, Responsible Adults, Minor Officials, Parents and Spectators are expected to abide by the rules of the ABA and conduct themselves in an appropriate manner in accordance with these rules, and as laid out in the ABA Code of Conduct regulations, or they may be subject to disciplinary action.
- 2.4. The YP Technical Committee will determine the outcome of any disciplinary action prior to the team(s) next scheduled game at YP Tournament.
- 2.5. A decision by the YP Technical Committee to impose a suspension or ejection recommendation of supplementary discipline is valid for an appeal.
- 2.6. The consideration of disciplinary matters by the YP Technical Committee need not involve an in-person meeting. The individual(s) who are the subject of the disciplinary proceedings must be contacted and be provided with the opportunity to present their version of events to the person or body charged with the responsibility of making a decision concerning discipline. The subject of the disciplinary proceedings may be contacted in person, by telephone or by other means of electronic communication. Every valid attempt will be made by the YP Technical Committee to connect with persons as hand, prior to their next scheduled game.
- 2.7. Written or electronic notice of discipline shall be provided to the Head Coach and Zone Director for the Player, Coach, Manager, Responsible Adult, Spectator involved who shall then be responsible to ensure that notice of the discipline that has been imposed is delivered to the Player and his or her Coach or the Coach, or Manager, or Responsible Adult, or Spectator, as the case may be.
- 2.8. Should a disciplinary situation arise which, in the opinion of the YP Technical Committee, requires ABA, EYBA or CMBA action but for which no rule specifically exists, the matter shall be referred by the ABA, EYBA or CMBA to the YP Technical Committee. YP Technical Committee shall have the authority to rule on the matter and their decision shall have the same authority as if there had been a rule dealing with the matter in question.

3. Rules Regarding Major Infractions

Appendix 1: Alberta Basketball Code of Conduct

The purpose of this code of conduct is to ensure a safe and positive environment by instituting a zero-tolerance policy. The Alberta Basketball Association (ABA) is committed to providing a sport environment in which all individuals are treated with respect and dignity. Individuals are expected to behave in an appropriate manner consistent with the values of the ABA. Conduct that violates this Code may be subject to disciplinary action. This policy applies to conduct that may arise during the course of the ABA business, activities and events, including but not limited to its office environment, competitions, practices, training camps, tryouts, travel and any meetings of the ABA.

Responsibilities

All individuals have a responsibility to:

- Maintain and enhance the dignity and self-esteem of the ABA members and other individuals by:
 - Demonstrating respect, regardless of body type, physical characteristics, athletic ability, gender identity or expression, ancestry, colour, ethnic or racial origin, nationality, national origin, sexual orientation, age, marital status, religion, political belief, disability or economic status, genetic characteristics,
 - Focusing comments or criticism appropriately and avoiding public criticism of athletes, coaches, officials, organizers, volunteers, employees and members,
 - Consistently demonstrating the spirit of sportsmanship, sport leadership and ethical conduct,
 - Consistently treating individuals fairly and respectfully;
- Refrain from any behavior that constitutes harassment, comment or conduct directed towards an individual or group, which is offensive, abusive, racist, sexist, degrading, or malicious; Refrain from any behavior that constitutes sexual harassment, where sexual harassment is defined as unwelcome sexual comments and sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or conduct of a sexual nature; and
- Comply at all times with the bylaws, policies, procedures, rules and regulations of the ABA.

Inclusion Statement

The ABA believes that all individuals deserve respectful and inclusive environments for participation that value the individual's gender identity and gender expression. The ABA wants to ensure that all participants have access to programming and facilities to the best of our ability in which they feel comfortable, safe and included. The ABA's will continue to provide updated information as it becomes available.
