

U17 MALE HEAD COACH

ABOUT GREG

Greg Bradley has been involved in Alberta Lacrosse for over 20 years as a player, coach, and board member in field and box lacrosse. Greg began his lacrosse career in Richmond, B.C., then moved on to play Junior for the Delta Islanders before relocating to Calgary to play Senior B for the Rockyview Knights. During his playing career, Greg has participated in numerous national championships, including the Founders, Presidents, and Alumni Cups. Greg has coached at all levels, from Novice to Senior B, and participated in multiple city and provincial championships. He has also twice head coached at the Alberta Summer games and was selected head coach for the 2023 U17 Team Alberta Men's Field Lacrosse team. Recently, he was involved as an assistant coach for the 2024 U17 Team Alberta Men's Box Lacrosse team. Greg's coaching career started in Richmond, B.C., in 1999 and continued after moving to Calgary, where he started with the Calgary Knights Minor program and continued to include box lacrosse in the Rockyview area. Greg is a founding member of the Jesters Lax Club field lacrosse program in the Southern Alberta area. Greg is a dedicated figure in the Southern Alberta lacrosse community, enhancing the sports' standard and providing players with essential skills for their athletic pursuits. His skill set and enthusiasm positively influence player development and the sport's growth. Bradley is an influential leader who motivates others to participate and support lacrosse expansion and understands its life-changing power. He contributes significantly as a long-term volunteer with a passion and dedication that will continue to benefit the growth of Alberta Lacrosse.
