AMHA, and its employees, Executive, Directors, Coordinators and Volunteers must, at all times, comply with all applicable laws and regulations. Annually, they will be asked to read and sign the AMHA Code of Conduct, at the first organizational meeting after the Annual General Meeting.

As a not for profit organization with significant community involvement, our members, employees, Executives, Directors, Coordinators, and Volunteers need to be cognizant that they are representing AMHA and support the Associations mission:

Mission is to provide fair opportunity for positive experiences through a safe and fun environment, with strong, progressive and quality programs for all members of the hockey community.
