3. Membership

3.1 The Members of the ACF - ALBERTA CURLING FEDERATION

AFFILIATED MEMBER: Any curling club, curling center or equivalent which provides on ice curling activities, located within the boundaries of the ACF - Alberta Curling Federation, that has:

- Applied for membership
- Paid the prescribed annual membership fee as defined in clause 3.2.
- Agreed to abide by the ACF's bylaws, policies, procedures and rules

Affiliated membership shall be limited to a maximum of one affiliation per facility.

DIRECTOR: Any Director of the ACF - Alberta Curling Federation.

The Board shall annually review and approve annual fees or assessments to be levied by the ACF on Affiliated Members for the upcoming fiscal year and shall establish terms of payment thereof.

3.2 Payment Date for Fees

The annual membership fees must be paid on or before January 31st of every year.

3.3 Rights and Privileges of Members

Any Member in Good Standing is entitled to:

- Receive notices of meetings of the ACF
- Participate and vote in any meeting of the Membership
- Affiliated members have preferred access to programs and resources offered by the ACF
- Affiliated Members have the opportunity to host provincial playdown and other ACF sanctioned events

3.4 Member Representatives

A Member Representative will be:

- a person of any gender being of the legal adult age
- selected through a formal process approved by the Affiliated Member

3.5 Voting Members

3.5.1 Each Member shall have one vote at any meeting of the Membership. Votes will be allowed by proxy, as defined in Clause 5.

3.5.2 Member in Good Standing

A Member is in Good Standing when:

- the Member has paid affiliation fees or other required fees to the ACF; and
- the Member is not suspended.

3.6 Suspension of Membership

3.6.1 Decision to Suspend

The Board, at a Special Meeting called for that purpose, may suspend a Member's membership for not more than 2 years for one or more of the following reasons:

- If the Member has failed to abide by the Bylaws;
- If the Member has done anything that, in the opinion of the Board, negatively affects the ACF or the sport of curling.

3.6.2 Notice to the Member

The affected Member will receive written notice of the Board's intention to deal with whether the Member should be suspended or not. The Member will receive at least twenty-one (21) days of notice before the Special Meeting.

The notice will be sent by single registered mail to the last known address of the Member shown in the records of the ACF. The notice may also be delivered by an Officer of the Board.

The notice will state the reasons why suspension is being considered.

3.6.3 Decision of the Board

The Member will have an opportunity to appear before the Board to address the suspension.

The Board will determine how the suspension will be dealt with and may limit the time for the Member to address the Board.

The Board may exclude the Member from its discussion of the suspension, including the deciding vote.

The decision of the Board is final.

3.7 Termination of Membership

3.7.1 Withdrawal

Any Member may withdraw from the ACF by sending or delivering a written notice to the office of the ACF.

Once the notice is received, the Member's name will be removed from the Register of Members. The Member is considered to have ceased being a Member on the date its name is removed from the Register of Members.

3.7.2 Deemed Withdrawal

If an Affiliated Member has not paid the annual affiliation fees within sixty (60) days following the date fees are due, the Member shall be deemed to have terminated its membership.

In this case, the name of the Member is removed from the Register of Members. The Member is considered to have ceased being a Member on the date its name is removed from the Register of Members.

3.7.3 Termination by the Board

The Board, at a Special Meeting called for that purpose, may terminate a Member's membership for one or more of the following reasons:

- If the Member has failed to abide by the Bylaws;
- If the Member has done anything that, in the opinion of the Board, negatively affects the ACF or the sport of curling.

3.7.4 Decision of the Board

The Member will have an opportunity to appear before the Board to address the termination.

The Board will determine how the termination will be dealt with and may limit the time for the Member to address the Board.

The Board may exclude the Member from its discussion of the termination, including the deciding vote.

The decision of the Board is final.

3.7.5 Reinstatement of Membership

A Member whose membership was suspended will be reinstated as a Member at the end of the suspension period, upon payment of any required affiliation fees.

A Member whose membership was terminated may apply to the Board to be reinstated as a Member.

3.8 Transmission of Membership

No right or privilege of any Member is transferable. All rights and privileges cease when the Member withdraws, is terminated, or is suspended from the ACF.

3.9 Continued Liability for Debts Due

Although a Member ceases to be a Member by withdrawal or termination, the Member is liable for any debts owing by the Member to the ACF at the date of ceasing to be a Member.

3.10 Limitation on the Liability of Members.

No Member is liable for any debt or liability of the ACF.

4. Meetings

4.1 Annual General Meeting (AGM)

One Annual General Meeting of the Members shall be called by the President and held on a date no later than one hundred twenty (120) days following each fiscal year-end of the ACF.

4.2 Purpose of Annual General Meeting

The AGM shall be called for the transaction of business to be brought before the Members including, but not limited to a review of financial statements by the ACF's accountant of record for the current year; the election of Directors; appointment of auditor for the next fiscal year, review of the ACF's operations and the Board's activities for the previous year.

4.3 Notice of Annual General Meeting

Membership will be notified of the date and time of the Annual General Meeting by notice to the Member, by notice on the ACF website, by newsletter and/or by email.

The accidental omission to give any notice to any Member, or any person or entity, or the non-receipt of any notice by any such Member, or any person or entity, or any error in any notice not affecting the substance thereof, shall not invalidate any action taken at any meeting held pursuant to such notice.

Notice of the Annual General Meeting shall be posted at least sixty (60) days prior to the holding of the AGM.

4.4 Special General Meeting of the ACF

A Special General Meeting of the Members shall be called:

- By the President as required.

- By the President upon written instruction of Members representing at least twenty percent (20%) of the Membership provided they request the President in writing to call such meeting and state the business to be brought before the meeting.
- By resolution of the Board.

Only such business as is called for in the notices shall be transacted at a Special General Meeting. Any resolution must be passed by seventy-five percent (75%) of the votes cast.

Notice of the meeting shall be posted at least twenty-one (21) days prior to the date fixed for a Special General Meeting. Membership will be notified of the date and time of the Special General Meeting by notice to the Member, by notice on the ACF website, by newsletter and/or by email. In the event of a Special General Meeting Members shall be advised the purpose thereof.

The accidental omission to give any notice to any Member, or any person or entity, or the non-receipt of any notice by any such Member, or any person or entity, or any error in any notice not affecting the substance thereof, shall not invalidate any action taken at any meeting held pursuant to such notice.

4.5 Quorum

Quorum at any Annual General Meeting or Special General Meeting of the Members shall be: A minimum of twenty-five (25) Member Representatives entitled to vote, including a minimum of five (5) Board Members.

Member Representatives may participate in meetings by being physically present or, at the discretion of the Board, by conference call or other approved means.

In the case of the AGM or any Special General Meeting, if within sixty (60) minutes of the appointed time a quorum is not present, then the meeting shall be adjourned.

The meeting will be rescheduled to a time and place as determined by the President providing such time shall allow for a minimum seven (7) days notice.

4.6 Voting

Unless otherwise stipulated, any motions or questions arising at any meeting of Members shall be decided by simple majority of the votes cast at the meeting.

Such votes may be made:

- in person by show of hands
- by proxy, as defined in Article 5, or
- verbally, if in attendance by conference call

On any question proposed for consideration at a meeting of Members the chairperson may require a ballot. Alternatively, any person who is present and entitled to vote on the question at the meeting may demand a ballot. A ballot so required or demanded shall be taken in whatever manner the chairperson directs. A requirement or demand for a ballot may be withdrawn at any time prior to the taking of the ballot.

Each Board Member, with the exception of the President ~~and Past President~~, shall be entitled to one vote at the Annual General Meeting or any Special General Meeting of the Membership. The President shall be entitled a vote in the event of a tie.

5. Proxy Voting

Each Member Representative entitled to vote at a meeting of Members may appoint a proxy holder to attend and act as the Member's Representative at the meeting in the manner and to the extent authorized by the proxy.

An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing executed by the member and shall conform to the requirements of the Act. Such instrument must be submitted to the office of the Federation and confirmed by the Secretary twenty-four (24) hours prior to the start of the meeting.

6. Governance of the ACF

6.1 First Directors

The applicants for incorporation shall be the first Directors of the Corporation. The term of office for such first Directors shall be until the first meeting of Members.

6.2 Board of Directors

6.2.1 Nomination of Directors

Nominations for vacant Director positions shall be submitted in writing to the Chair of the committee responsible for nominations at least sixty (60) days in advance of the meeting at which the vote is to be held. It shall contain the signature of representatives of two Members in Good Standing from the geographical zone for which the nomination is being made and a signed acceptance of the nomination by the nominee.

Nominations from the floor will be accepted when no candidates have been presented to the membership for a vacant Director position, in accordance with the paragraph above.

- a) Nominees from the floor must be present and accept the nomination in order to stand for election to the Board of Directors.
- b) Nominations from the floor must be moved, seconded and properly approved by the Members present.

6.2.2 Election of Directors

Directors shall be elected by vote at the Annual General Meeting. The candidate or candidates with the largest number of votes cast shall fill Director vacancies where vacancies need to be filled. Failure of a candidate to provide a signed acceptance pursuant to clause 6.2.1, shall not, in itself, nullify the election of that person if that person subsequently takes up the office of Director by attending meetings of the Board or otherwise assuming the responsibilities of a Director.

Directors are elected for a term of 3 years. The terms shall be staggered such that no more than 4 positions are scheduled each year for election, subject to the requirements of clause 6.2.3.

Elected Directors must reside in the geographical zone for which they are elected.

6.2.3 Appointment of Directors

If there is a vacancy on the Board, the remaining Directors may appoint a Director to fill that vacancy until the next meeting at which Directors are to be elected, at which time the position will be available for election. A Director then elected into that position may remain for the remainder of the original term.

Appointed Directors must reside in the geographical zone for which the vacancy exists.

6.2.4 Geographical Representation

The Board of Directors shall include Directors from each of 8 geographical zones. There will be no more than 2 Directors from any zone.

6.2.4.1 There shall be a minimum of 8 and a maximum of 12 Directors

6.2.4.2 Geographical zones are:

- Zone 1 - Sunny South
- Zone 2 - Big Country
- Zone 3 - Calgary
- Zone 4 - Parkland
- Zone 5 - Black Gold/Yellowhead
- Zone 6 - Edmonton
- Zone 7 - North Eastern Alberta
- Zone 8 - Peace Country

The communities included in each zone are listed in Appendix A.

6.2.5 Limit on Consecutive Terms

A Director may not hold position for more than 2 consecutive terms. A minimum of 1 year must pass before a Director who has had 2 consecutive terms may apply to rejoin the Board.

6.2.6 Governance and Management of the ACF

The Board shall manage the business and affairs of the ACF, take such actions as deemed appropriate to affect the purposes of these Bylaws, exercise all of the powers of the ACF, and may adopt such policies, rules and procedures, recommendations and actions as deemed advisable and which are consistent with all applicable laws and these Bylaws.

The Board may hire a paid administrator to carry out management functions under the direction and supervision of the Board.

6.2.7 Directors' Accountability

Every Director of the Federation shall exercise the powers and discharge the duties of his office honestly, in good faith and in the best interests of the Federation, and in connection therewith shall exercise the degree of care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in similar circumstances, including reliance in good faith on:

- a) financial statements of the Federation represented to the Director by an officer of the Federation or in a written report of a public accountant or auditor of the Federation fairly to reflect the financial condition of the Federation; or
- b) a report of a person whose profession lends credibility to a statement made by that person.

6.2.8 Composition of the Board

The Board consists of:

- President
- Vice-President
- Secretary
- Treasurer
- Eight (8) Directors, and
- ~~Past President~~

Any candidate to be considered as an Officer shall have prior Board experience within the ACF. The Board may waive such requirement upon receipt of evidence of other applicable experience.

No employee of the ACF may hold a Director position or have voting privileges at Board Meetings.

6.2.9 Notice

At least one hundred twenty (120) days prior to the AGM the Board shall provide notice to all Members the Directors' positions and terms open for election.

6.2.10 Officers

Officers of the ACF shall be: the President, Vice-President, Treasurer and Secretary.

Officers are elected by the Board at the first meeting of the Board following the AGM.

The Officer holds office until re-elected or until a successor is elected.

All officer positions are for one (1) year.

A Director may not hold the office of President for more than 3 consecutive years.

6.2.11 Duties of the Officers of the ACF

President

- Supervises the affairs of the Board;
- When present, chairs all meetings of the Society, the Board;
- Is an ex officio member of all Committees;
- Acts as spokesperson for the ACF;
- Carries out other duties assigned by resolution of the Board.

Vice-President

- Presides at meetings in the President's absence.
- Presides at various functions when asked to do so by the President or Board;
- Carries out other duties assigned by resolution of the Board.

Secretary

- Keeps accurate minutes of Board meetings and the AGM;
- Has charge of the Board's correspondence;
- Ensures that a record of names and addresses of all Members of the ACF is kept;
- Keeps the Seal of the ACF;
- Ensures compliance with all legal documentation requirements, such as filing the annual return, changes in the Directors of the organization, amendments to the bylaws, and other required documentation; and
- Carries out other duties assigned by resolution of the Board.

Treasurer

- Ensures all monies paid to the ACF are deposited in a chartered bank, treasury branch or trust company chosen by the Board;
- Ensures that a detailed account of revenues and expenditures is presented to the Board as requested;
- Ensures a reviewed statement of the financial position of the ACF is prepared and presented to the Annual General Meeting;
- Carries out other duties assigned by resolution of the Board.

6.3 Past President

- ~~The Past President is a non-voting Director.~~
- In the event a past president also hold a seat as a director or officer within their term, they can cast a vote as a director or officer.
- In the event a past president exists past the end of their term, the Past President position will only exist for one (1) year and hold no rights to vote.
- ~~The term of Past President is one (1) year.~~
- May acts as an advisor the President as an advisor to the board when requested.

6.4 Meetings of the Board

Scheduled meetings of the Board shall be held as often as may be required, but at least four (4) times per year with one (1) meeting to be held immediately following the AGM.

All Board Members shall be notified at least fourteen (14) days prior to the holding of any Board meeting.

The President may call a special meeting of the Board for consideration of special matters and shall be called in like manner on the instruction of any three (3) Board Members provided they request in writing to call such meeting and state the business to be brought before the meeting.

A simple majority of the incumbent Officers and Directors is a quorum.

Each Board member with the exception of the President ~~and Past President~~ shall be entitled to one (1) vote at any meeting of the Board. The President shall be entitled to a vote in the event of a tie.

6.5 Board Votes

Resolutions of the Board shall be adopted ~~by consensus, defined as general acceptance by the Directors present and eligible to vote. Where, in the judgment of the Chair, a consensus cannot be achieved, or if requested by any Director present at the meeting, the Chair shall call a vote and the resolution shall be adopted~~ if a majority of the Directors present vote in favour of the resolution, provided that a quorum remains present.

Unless a ballot is demanded, an entry in the minutes of a meeting to the effect that the Chair of the meeting declared a resolution to be carried or defeated is, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, proof of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

A resolution in writing, signed by all the Directors entitled to vote on that resolution at a meeting of Directors or of a committee of Directors, is as valid as if it had been passed at a meeting of Directors or committee of Directors.

Meetings of the Board are open to Member Representatives of the ACF but only Directors may vote. Member Representatives are only allowed to participate in a discussion when invited to do so by the Board. Officers and Directors present may ask any other Member Representatives, or other persons present, to leave.

6.6 Powers and Duties of the Board

The Board has the powers of the ACF, except as stated in the Societies Act.

The powers and duties of the Board include:

- Promoting the objectives of the ACF.
- Promoting membership in the ACF.
- Maintaining and protecting the assets and property of the ACF.
- Approving an annual budget for the ACF.
- Paying all expenses for operating and managing the ACF.
- Paying persons for services and protecting persons from debts of the ACF.
- Investing any extra monies.
- Financing the operations of the ACF and borrowing or raising monies.
- Making policies for managing and operating the ACF.
- Approving all contracts for the ACF.
- Maintaining all accounts and financial records of the ACF.
- Appointing legal counsel as necessary.
- Making policies, rules and regulations for operating the ACF and using its facilities and assets.
- Selling, disposing of, or mortgaging any or all of the property of the ACF; and

- Without limiting the general responsibility of the Board, delegating its powers and duties.

6.7 Resignation, Death or Removal of a Director

A Director including the President ~~and Past President~~, may resign from office by giving notice in writing. The resignation takes effect upon receipt, by an Officer, of the written notice.

Members may remove any Director, including the President, before the end of his/her term. Removal will be decided by a vote at a Special Meeting called for this purpose.

The Board may remove a Director or Officer by affirmative vote of not less than seventy-five (75%) percent of the Board Members when, in the opinion of the Board:

- It is in the best interest of the ACF or the Director or Officer.
- The Director or Officer has failed to abide by the Bylaws.
- The Director or Officer has failed to act in accordance with rules governing conduct.
- Such Director or Officer has not fulfilled their obligations to the Board of the ACF.
- Where a Director or Officer is to be removed there must be notice provided to all the Board Members, of the intent to remove, including the Director being considered for removal.
- Any Director or Officer missing three consecutive Board meetings without valid reason may be removed without the need to provide notice of intent.

6.8 Board Committees

The Board may establish standing committees and/or ad hoc committees as required.

Committees may appoint members who are not Directors.

A Board Member chairs each committee created by the Board.

The Chair calls committee meetings.

Each committee:

- Records minutes of its meetings
- Distributes those minutes to the committee members

- Provides reports to each Board meeting at the Board's request

Committee members must be notified fourteen (14) days before the scheduled date of the meeting. The notice states the date, place and time of the committee meeting. Committee members may waive notice.

7. Finance and Other Management Matters

7.1 Finance and Auditing

The fiscal year end of the ACF will be determined at the first meeting of the Board.

There must be an audit of the books, accounts and records of the ACF at least once each year. A qualified accountant, appointed at each Annual General Meeting, must do this audit. At each Annual General Meeting of the ACF, the auditor submits a complete statement of the books for the previous year.

7.2 Seal of the ACF

The Board may adopt a seal as the Seal of the ACF.

The Secretary has control and custody of the seal, unless the Board decides otherwise.

The Seal of the ACF can only be used by the Officers authorized by the Board. The Board must pass a motion to name the authorized Officers.

7.3 Signing Authority

Contracts, agreements, deeds, leases, mortgages, charges, conveyances, transfers and assignments of property, leases and discharges for the payment of money or other obligations, conveyances, transfers and assignments of shares, stocks, bonds, debentures, or other securities, agencies, powers of attorney, instruments of proxy, voting certificates, returns, documents, reports, or any other instruments in writing to be executed by the Federation will be executed by at least two (2) individuals designated by resolution of the Board.

7.4 Keeping and Inspection of the Books and Records of the ACF

The Secretary keeps a copy of the Minute Books and records minutes of all meetings of the Members and of the Board.

The Secretary keeps the original Minute Books at the Registered Office of the ACF. This record contains minutes from all meetings of the ACF Board.

The Board keeps and files all necessary books and records of the ACF as required by the Bylaws, the Societies Act, or any other statute or laws.

A Member Representative wishing to inspect the books or records of the ACF must give reasonable notice to the President or Secretary of the ACF of his/her intentions to do so.

All financial records of the ACF are open for such inspection by the Members, during normal business hours and with reasonable notice.

7.5 Borrowing Powers

The ACF may borrow or raise funds to meet its objects and operations. The Board decides the amounts and ways to raise money, including giving or granting security.

The Board may issue debentures to borrow only by resolution of the Board confirmed by a Special Resolution of the ACF.

7.6 Remuneration of Directors and Officers

The Directors and Officers shall receive no remuneration for acting as such and no Director or Officer shall directly or indirectly receive any profit from his position. Directors and Officers may receive reasonable compensation for expenses incurred by them in the normal course of their duties.

7.7 Protection and Indemnity of Directors and Officers

Each Director or Officer holds office with protection from the ACF. The ACF indemnifies each Director or Officer against all costs or charges that result from any act done in his/her role for the ACF. The ACF does not protect any Director or Officer for acts of fraud, dishonesty or bad faith.

No Director or Officer is liable for the acts of any other Director, Officer or employee. No Director or Officer is responsible for any loss or damage due to the bankruptcy, insolvency, or wrongful act of any person, firm or corporation dealing with the ACF. No Director or Officer is liable for any loss due to an oversight or error in judgment, or by an act in his/her role for the ACF, unless the act is fraud, dishonesty or bad faith.

Directors or Officers can rely on the accuracy of any statement or report prepared by the ACF auditor. Directors or Officers are not held liable for any loss or damage as a result of acting on that statement or report.

The Society will purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of any person referred to in section 7.7 against any liability incurred by him or her in their capacity as a Director of the Society.

8. Amending the Bylaws

- 8.1 These Bylaws may be cancelled, altered or added to by a Special Resolution at any General or Special Meeting of the ACF.
- 8.2 The one hundred twenty (120) days notice of the Annual General Meeting or twenty-one (21) days notice Special Meeting of the ACF must include details of the proposed resolution to change the Bylaws.
- 8.3 The amended bylaws take effect after the approval of the Special Resolution at the Annual General Meeting or Special Meeting and after being accepted by the Corporate Registry of Alberta.

9. Distributing the Assets and Dissolving the Federation

- 9.1 The ACF does not pay any dividends or distribute its property among its Members.
- 9.2 If the ACF is dissolved:

- any remaining gaming proceeds are to be donated to an eligible charitable or religious group or purpose or transferred in trust to a municipality until such time as the assets can be transferred from the municipality to a charitable or religious group or purpose.
- any other funds or assets remaining after paying all debts are to be distributed equally to all Affiliated Members in Good Standing in the year of dissolution

10. APPROVAL

These Bylaws were accepted and approved at Meetings of Members of ~~ACF, SACA, NACA, and PCA prior to amalgamation and will be enacted by the Directors upon completion of amalgamation of ACF, SACA, NACA and PCA to form~~ ACF – ALBERTA CURLING FEDERATION.

DATED at the City of _____, in the Province of Alberta, this _____ day of _____, 2019.
