1 Code of Conduct

1.1 Definitions

1.1.1 The following terms have these meanings in this Code:

- a) "The Club" – Aurora Soccer Club Inc.
- b) "Governing Body" – The organization that has the authority to manage a judicial process as per the policies of the governing body. Governing body may refer to Canada Soccer, SSA, or SYSI.
- c) "Members" – All Members defined by the Club's Bylaws and for the purposes of this policy shall also include all individuals associated or affiliated with the Club, including but not limited to athletes, coaches, officials, volunteers, managers, administrators, committee members, directors, officers and parents and spectators at the Club events and SSA sanctioned competitions.
- d) "Organizers" – Those persons that support the organization of soccer in the Club and are acting within the scope of their duties in support of the Club; An organizer member may include but are not limited to administrators, volunteers, directors and officers, staff, coaches, and match officials, who may or may not receive pay.
- e) "SSA" – Saskatchewan Soccer Association
- f) "Team Personnel" - All supervisory team personnel including but not limited to coaches, assistant coaches, managers, trainers and other medical staff, and gender representative personnel or anyone that wishes to have access to the field of play.
- g) "Representative" – All individuals employed by, or engaged in activities on behalf of, the Club. Representatives include, but are not limited to, staff, administrators, directors and officers, committee members, and volunteers of the Club.

1.2 Purpose

- 1.2.1 The purpose of the Code of Conduct and Ethics (hereinafter referred to as the Code) is to ensure a safe and positive environment (within the Club's programs, activities, office, work environment, and events) by making members aware that there is an expectation, always, of appropriate behaviors consistent with the Club's core values. The Club supports equal opportunity, prohibits discriminatory practices, and is committed to providing an environment in which all individuals are treated with respect.
- 1.2.2 As per the Saskatchewan Employment Act and Saskatchewan Occupational Health and Safety Regulations, the Club is obligated to ensure workers are not exposed to abuse or harassment with respect to any matter or circumstance arising out of their employment; for the purposes of the Club Code of Conduct this protection also extends to all organizer members who volunteer or may receive payment in service to the Association.
- 1.2.3 This Code is not intended to specifically outline every instance of misconduct. As such, misconduct not specifically listed in this Code which is not in line with the values of the Association or the purpose of this Code, may still constitute a breach of the Code and be subject to sanctions.

1.3 Application of this Code

- 1.3.1 A member who violates this Code may be subject to sanctions pursuant to the Club's Formal Complaints Policy. A member who violates this Code during a competition may be ejected from the competition or the playing area, the match official may delay the competition until the member complies with the ejection, and the member may be subject to any additional discipline associated with the competition as per the Club's Event Discipline Procedure.
- 1.3.2 An employee of the Club who violates this Code will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action according to the terms of the related policies and/or employment agreement.

1.9 Team Personnel

- 1.9.1 Team personnel (which includes, but not limited to, all coaches, assistant coaches, and managers, gender representatives, medical or other personnel in a position of influence on the athlete(s)) have many additional responsibilities. The team personnel-athlete relationship is a privileged one and plays a critical role in the personal, sport, and athletic development of the athlete. Team personnel must recognize the power inherent in the position of team personnel and respect and promote the rights of all participants in sport. This is accomplished by establishing and following procedures for confidentiality (right to privacy), informed participation, and fair and reasonable treatment. Team personnel have a special responsibility to respect and promote the rights of participants who are in a vulnerable or dependent position and less able to protect their own rights. This applies equally to the relationship between match officials and their coaches, instructors, assessors, and mentors. Team personnel must also:
- a) Ensure a safe environment by selecting activities and establishing controls that are suitable for the age, experience, ability, and fitness level of the involved athletes
 - b) Prepare athletes systematically and progressively, using appropriate time frames and monitoring physical and psychological adjustments while refraining from using training methods or techniques that may harm athletes
 - c) Avoid compromising the present and future health of athletes by communicating and cooperating with sport medicine professionals in the diagnosis, treatment, and management of athletes' medical and psychological treatments
 - d) Support the team personnel of a training camp, provincial team, or national team, should an athlete qualify for participation with one of these programs
 - e) Provide athletes (and the parents/guardians/caregivers of athletes) with the information necessary to be involved in the decisions that affect the athlete
 - f) Act in the best interest of the athlete's development as a whole person
 - g) Respect other team personnel
 - h) Meet the highest standards of credentials, integrity, and suitability, including but not limited to such considerations established by SSA's Screening Policy
 - i) Report any ongoing criminal investigation, previous convictions, or existing bail conditions, including those for violence, child pornography, or possession, use, or sale of any illegal substance
 - j) Under no circumstances provide, promote, or condone the use of drugs (other than properly prescribed medications) or performance-enhancing substances and, in the case of minors, alcohol, marijuana and/or tobacco
 - k) Respect athletes playing with other teams and, in dealings with them, not encroach upon topics or actions which are deemed to be within the realm of 'coaching', unless after first receiving approval from the coaches who are responsible for the athletes
 - l) Not engage in a sexual relationship with an athlete under 18 years old, or an intimate or sexual relationship with an athlete over the age of 18 if in a position of power, trust, or authority over the athlete
 - m) Dress professionally, neatly, and inoffensively
 - n) Use inoffensive language, considering the audience being addressed
 - o) Act professionally at all times

- p) All communications between a coach/team personnel or other adult and an athlete must be professional in nature and for the purpose of communicating information about team activities. The content and intent of all electronic communications must adhere to the Saskatchewan Soccer Association Code of Conduct and Ethics as well as the Organization's Code(s) of Conduct.
- q) Follow all guidelines and policies for electronic communications and social media (see Section 13 for further details).

1.10 Athletes

1.10.1 Athletes must also:

- j) Not accept any appointment to officiate in any competitive game involving a team in the same age group and gender division in the same league to which the match official is directly affiliated as a team personnel
- k) Not accept an appointment to officiate in any provincial championship game involving a team or club to whom the match official is directly affiliated as a player, team personnel, and organizer
- l) Not accept any appointment to officiate in any competitive game in which an immediate member of their family by marriage or common law is registered player or team personnel. An immediate member of the family is a parent/guardian/caregiver, a spouse, child, or sibling
- m) Not accept any appointment to officiate in unsanctioned events
- n) Be fair, equitable, considerate, independent, honest, and impartial in all dealings with others
- o) When writing reports, set out the true facts and not attempt to justify any decisions
- p) Report any approach to fix the result of a match
- q) Behave responsibly and respectfully on social media and in electronic communications. Follow all guidelines and policy for electronic communications and social media (see Section 13 for further details).

1.12 Spectators and Parents/Guardians/Caregivers

- 1.12.1 Spectators and parents/guardians/caregivers must also:
 - a) Encourage athletes to play by the rules and to resolve conflicts without resorting to hostility or violence
 - b) Never ridicule a participant for making a mistake during a performance or practice
 - c) Provide positive comments that motivate and encourage participants' continued effort

 - e) Respect and show appreciation to all competitors, and to the team personnel, match officials, and other volunteers who give their time to the sport
 - f) Refrain from entering the training or competition areas and from interfering with any activities
 - g) Behave responsibly and respectfully on social media and in electronic communications.

2 Code of Conduct to Protect Children

2.1 Introduction

- 2.1.1 The Club has developed the following Child Protection Code of Conduct to guide our employees/volunteers in their interactions with children. The safety, rights and well-being of children we serve are at the core of our daily programs. We nurture supportive relationships with children while balancing and encouraging appropriate boundaries.

- 2.1.2 Why is a Child Protection Code of Conduct is important? Our organization is committed to ensuring all children are protected and safe. A Code of Conduct is an important part of creating safe environments for children. The safety, rights and well-being of children participating in our programs is a priority in our daily operations. The intent of the Code of Conduct is to guide staff/volunteers in developing healthy relationships with the children involved in sport programs delivered by the Club and to model appropriate boundaries for children.

2.2 Treating Children with Dignity and Maintaining Boundaries

- 2.2.1 All staff/volunteers shall:
- Treat all children with respect and dignity
 - Establish, respect, and maintain appropriate boundaries with all children and families involved in activities or programs delivered by the organization
- 2.2.2 It is important to monitor your own behaviour towards children and pay close attention to the behaviors of your peers to ensure that behaviour is appropriate and respectful, and will be perceived as such by others.
- 2.2.3 All your interactions and activities with children:
- should be known to and approved by the board, where applicable, and the parents of the child,
 - tied to your duties, and
 - designed to develop the child's skills in the soccer program
- 2.2.4 Always consider the child's reaction to any activities, conversations, behavior or other interactions. If at any time you are in doubt about the appropriateness of your own behavior or the behaviors of others, you should discuss it with the designated person within your organization.
- 2.2.5 Examples of unacceptable behaviors toward a child:
- Embarrassing
 - Shaming
 - Blaming
 - Humiliating, and/or
 - Putting them down

2.3 What Constitutes Inappropriate Behaviour

- 2.3.1 The action taken by the organization will depend upon the nature of the incident; however, it is important for the organization to distinguish between illegal behavior and inappropriate behavior.
- 2.3.2 If you are unsure whether the behavior you witnessed or heard about is illegal behavior or inappropriate behavior, then you must discuss the issue with the designated person within your organization who will support you through the process.

2.3.3 Inappropriate behavior includes:

- a) Inappropriate Communication. Communication with a child or his/her family outside of the context of duties for the organization, regardless of who initiated the exchange. For example:
 - i. Personal phone calls are not tied to duties with the child;
 - ii. Electronic communications and social media (email, text message, instant message, online chats, social networking including “friending”, etc.) not tied to duties with the child;
 - iii. Personal letters not tied to duties with the child; and
 - iv. Excessive communications (online or offline).
- b) Inappropriate Contact: spending unauthorized time with a child outside of designated duties with the organization.
- c) Favoritism: singling out a child or certain children and providing special privileges and attention, but not to include variations in playing time based on skills, strategy, or player commitment (for example, paying a lot of attention to, giving or sending personalized gifts, or allowing privileges that are excessive, unwarranted or inappropriate).
- d) Taking Personal Photos/Videos outside of sport duties: using a personal cell phone, camera, or video to take pictures of a child, or allowing any other person to do so, as well as uploading or copying any pictures you may have taken of a child to the Internet or any personal storage device. Pictures taken as part of your job duties are acceptable, however, the pictures are to remain with the organization and not be used by you in a personal capacity.
- e) Telling sexual jokes to a child or making comments to a child that are or is in any way suggestive, explicit, or personal.
- f) Showing a child material that is sexual in nature, including, signs, cartoons, graphic novels, calendars, literature, photographs, screensavers, or displaying such material in plain view of a child or making such material available to a child.
- g) Intimidating or threatening a child.
- h) Making fun of a child.

2.3.4 Inappropriate behavior will not be tolerated, especially as it relates to the well-being of the children involved in activities or programs delivered by the Club.

2.3.5 Internal Reporting: everyone is obligated to report inappropriate behavior to the Club or incidents that they become aware of, whether the behaviors or incidents were personally witnessed or not. Whether or not a particular behavior or action constitutes inappropriate behavior will be a matter determined by a Saskatchewan Soccer Association formal complaint process.

2.3.6 In the case of inappropriate behavior, if:

- a) multiple behaviors were reported,
- b) inappropriate behavior is recurring, or
- c) the reported behavior is of serious concern,

The organization may refer the matter to the child welfare agency or police.

2.4 Illegal Behaviour

- 2.4.1 All forms of abuse identified are open to intervention according to The Child and Family Services Act, including:
- a) Physical Abuse;
 - b) Sexual Abuse and Exploitation;
 - c) Physical Neglect;
 - d) Emotional Maltreatment;
 - e) Exposure to Domestic or Interpersonal Violence; and
 - f) Failure to provide Essential Medical Treatment.
- 2.4.2 External Reporting: The Child Abuse Protocol makes clear that all citizens have a “Duty to Report” suspicions of child abuse and neglect and in all cases where the safety of a minor is in question, the guidelines of Saskatchewan’s Child Abuse Protocol and other applicable provincial acts shall be adhered to (for details refer to Section 13).
