

Tournament Rules & Regulations May 6 – 8, 2022

The following information relates to tournament, conduct, format, rules, policies, and procedures.

A. Team Conduct

The Western Super Summit tournament directors expect the conduct of all participants to be exemplary both on and off the ice. All misconduct will result in immediate and prompt disqualification from the tournament. The Western Super Summit Tournament has established a "ZERO TOLERANCE" policy on abusive language and unsportsmanlike behavior towards all participants opposing team players, coaches, fans, referees, volunteers, and tournament officials. Spectators violating this policy will be immediately escorted from the venue.

B. Rules & Rule Modifications:

The Western Super Summit is played under Standard Hockey Alberta - Rules

Hockey Alberta Rules are in effect and Hockey Canada guidelines for equipment will be enforced for all teams. Listed below are some of the more significant rule modifications that will be used during the Western Super Summit Tournament.

• The home team will wear dark jerseys UNLESS the away team only has dark jerseys. Teams must coordinate at least 30 minutes before each game to ensure which uniforms will be worn.

Body Contact

- Full contact division 2008 & 2007
- 2009 (modified no open ice hits, no north south hits)
- Non-Contact divisions 2015 2010 & adult

Roster / Waiver/ Insurance

D. Penalties

All decisions made by the officials during the game are final.

- In the event of coincidental penalties, neither team will skate shorthanded.
- Any player and/or coach using remarks that are considered a racial slur, and which are heard by a game official, will automatically receive a game misconduct. The tournament advisory committee reserves the right to review any racially motivated incident for further disciplinary action, including disqualification from the tournament.
- Majors are subject to tournament committee decision on the penalty call. Players and/or coaches can expect a minimum of 1 game suspension. Standard Hockey Alberta Hockey Canada rules will apply.

E. Protests

Protests will be heard. Officials are to complete all write-ups on the back of the first game sheet as required by the rules. All suspensions will be dealt with by the Tournament Committee. Should a player receive the combination of either, 2 Game misconducts, Gross misconducts, and/or Match penalties during the tournament that player shall be ejected from the remainder of the tournament.

Any coach or manager who receives a Game Misconduct, for harassment of the officials, or a Gross Misconduct, shall be suspended for a minimum of one (1) game up to the remainder of the tournament pending the severity. No exceptions, no appeals. Coaches and managers are expected to treat the officials with the utmost respect. Any issues with the officials can be brought to the attention of the tournament committee.

No protests will be considered regarding rules interpretations or judgment calls made by game officials. Only protests related to game rules that can be addressed within the Standard Hockey Alberta - Hockey Canada rules regarding player eligibility will be heard by tournament officials. If it is determined that a player has violated an eligibility rule, both the player and the head coach will be disqualified from the tournament.

Disqualifications will begin from the point where a player is determined ineligible and will affect prior results or change a team's record at the discretion of Sports Event Inc.
