7. NOTES

- The Chef-de-Mission's role is to be the team's representative appointed by and answerable to Baseball PEI to Baseball Canada, the Baseball Canada representative at the National Championship, and the Championship Host Committee at a National Championship.
  - Aspects of this role include:
    - Meet with the team at least two weeks prior to the National Championship to introduce yourself and review all Baseball PEI rules for teams at National Championships
    - Ensure a Provincial Team Code of Conduct is signed by all players, parents, coaches, and managers and returned to Baseball PEI prior to the National Championship
    - Travel with the team (unless the National Championship is driving distance)
    - Represent the team at the National Championship Pre-Tournament Meeting
    - Attend each of the team's games at the National Championship
    - Along with one member of the coaching staff, inspect all players' rooms prior to players entering them, and inspect all players' rooms after the players leave them at the end of the National Championship
    - Along with one member of the coaching staff, do a room check of each room at a predetermined time each night while at the National Championship
    - If one/more players are suspected of breaking the Code of Conduct, investigate immediately. If one/more players are found to have broken the Code of Conduct, in consultation with Baseball PEI a suspension may need to be served immediately. Please contact the Executive Director immediately.
    - Within two weeks of the conclusion of the National Championship, submit a report to the Board of Directors of Baseball PEI
- The Chef-de-Mission will have all transportation covered. If driving- mileage will be reimbursed at .53km, if flying- flight will either be booked by BPEI or reimbursed after agreed upon flights have been booked by the individual. Hotel room will be covered, and a per diem of up to $65 per day for meals.
- *IF a Che-de-Mission is the parent of an athlete competing at that national a flat rate of $1000 will be paid out in support of the costs incurred.
