

Provincial Team Code of Conduct

Purpose

Athletes chosen for a Baseball PEI Provincial Baseball Team represent their Province, community, team, family, and themselves. It is a privilege for them to represent their Province, and with that privilege comes responsibilities. This Code of Conduct is to be signed by all athletes and one of their parents/guardians. Those who fail to abide by this code can be subject to a one-year suspension from representing their Province at Atlantic and National Championships

1) Appropriate behavior is expected from all athletes in any circumstance involving the team, including but not limited to games, practices, training, travelling to and from competition, and hotel stays involved with competition.
