

12U Girls Level of Play

PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING:

Below is vital information to understand. It is very difficult on the coaches, players & parents to have players attend the tryouts that are not committed to the time requirement for that level. A player MUST be able to commit to the time frame of the level for which they are selected. If there is not enough registrations to field the 12U Girls team, they have the option to play Co-ed in 11U A or 11U AA and also during the regular season to train with the Regina 12U girls team known as the Regina Ravens to attend 12U Provincials in July.

A - Recreational level of play

- Games in and within approximately 50 kms of Regina
- Games/Practices 2-3X/week
- One to two tournaments during the season plus playoffs
- Season done by the end of school in June.

AA - Developmental, competitive level of play

- Focus on skill development for everyone
- Games/Practices 3 – 4 times per week
- Travel 2-4 times per season to a distance of 120 kms or 2 hours from Regina. Play teams in and outside Regina.
- Two to three tournaments during the season plus playoffs
- Season ends third week of July
- Baseball Sask 12U Girls Provincials

FAQ - How many games will I play?

- This is dependent upon what level you are playing. Rally Cap has approximately 14 games and one Rally Cap Day; 11U - 15U: A Division - approximately 16-18 games, 1-2 weekend tournaments and 1 weekend playoffs; AA Division 20-22 games, 2-3 weekend tournaments, 1 weekend playoffs, 1 weekend Provincials.
