1) Definitions

These terms will have these meanings in this policy:

- a) "BRA" – Beaumont Ringette Association
- b) "Individuals" - All individuals engaged in activities within direct control of BRA, including but not limited to, Directors, Officers, volunteers, employees, coaches, officials, managers and administrators.

2) Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to ensure the protection of Confidential Information that is proprietary to BRA by making all Individuals aware that there is an expectation to act at all times appropriately and consistently with this policy.

3) Application of this Policy

This policy applies to all Individuals as defined in the Definitions.

4) Responsibilities

1. Individuals will not, either during the period of their involvement/employment or any time thereafter, disclose to any person or organization any Confidential Information acquired during their period of involvement/employment with BRA, unless expressly authorized to do so.
2. Individuals will not publish, communicate, divulge or disclose to any unauthorized person, firm, corporation, third party or parties any Confidential Information or any part thereof, without the express written consent of BRA.
3. All files and written materials relating to Confidential Information will remain the property of BRA and upon termination of involvement/employment with BRA or upon request of BRA, the Individual will return all Confidential Information received in written or tangible form, including copies, or reproductions or other media containing such Confidential Information, immediately upon such request.

4. The term “Confidential Information” includes, but it not limited to the following:
  - a) Personal Information collected and retained by BRA, but not limited to: name, address, e-mail, telephone number, cell phone number, date of birth and financial information;
  - b) BRA intellectual property and proprietary information related to the programs, fundraisers, business or affairs of BRA, including, but not limited to: procedures, business methods, forms, policies, business, marketing and development plans, advertising programs, creative materials, trade secrets, knowledge, techniques, data, products, technology, computer programs, manuals, software, financial information and information that is not generally or publicly known.

5) Intellectual Property

Copyright and any other intellectual property rights in all written material (including material in electronic format) and other works produced in connection with employment or involvement with BRA will be owned solely by BRA, who will have the right to use, reproduce or distribute such material and works, or any part thereof, for any purpose it wishes. BRA may grant permission for others to use such written material or other works, subject to such terms and conditions as BRA may prescribe.

6) Enforcement

A breach of any provision in this policy may give rise to discipline in accordance with BRA's Discipline and Complaints policy or legal recourse.
