Big Country Soccer Association and its Registered Members ensure that all soccer events are approved and sanctioned within Big Country Soccer Association and Alberta Soccer Association. Any soccer event where the event involving Big Country Soccer Association and/ or its Registered Members include a non-member (s), endorsement must first be obtained by Big County Soccer Association and, where applicable, Alberta Soccer Association in accordance with Regulation 19 of the Alberta Soccer Association Rules and Regulations.

Should a Registered Member wish to organize a soccer academy program i.e. 1-week soccer academy, in support of youth soccer development, the following apply:

- Participants must be from the same District.
- Should a player from another district wish to attend, endorsement from the District that the player is registered with must endorse the event as noted in Alberta Soccer Association Regulation 19.
- The soccer event must meet the requirements of Standards for Soccer Excellent, including be organized to meet the Big Country Soccer Association Age Curriculums that are in place.
