

Social Media Policy

Preamble

1. Broomball Canada is aware that Organizational Participant interaction and communication occurs frequently on social media. Broomball Canada cautions Organizational Participants that any conduct falling short of the standard of behaviour required by this Social Media Policy and the Code may be subject to the disciplinary sanctions identified within the Discipline and Complaints Policy.

Application of this Policy

2. This policy applies to all Organizational Participants.

Conduct and Behaviour

3. All conduct and behaviour occurring on Social Media must comply with the Code.
4. Organizational Participants may not engage in the following behaviour on Social Media:
  - a) posting a disrespectful, hateful, harmful, disparaging, or insulting comment on a social medium;
  - b) posting a picture, altered picture, or video on a social medium that is harmful, disrespectful, insulting, embarrassing, suggestive, provocative, or otherwise offensive;
  - c) creating or contributing to a Facebook group, webpage, Instagram account, Twitter feed, blog, or online forum devoted solely or in part to promoting negative or disparaging remarks or commentary about Broomball Canada or its stakeholders or reputation; or
  - d) any instance of cyber-bullying or cyber-harassment where incidents of cyber-bullying and cyber-harassment can include but are not limited to the following conduct on any social medium, via text message, or via email: regular insults, negative comments, vexatious behaviour, pranks or jokes, threats, posing as another person, spreading rumours or lies, or other harmful behaviour.

Organizational Participants' Responsibilities

5. Organizational Participants should be aware that their Social Media activity may be viewed by anyone; including Broomball Canada.
6. If Broomball Canada unofficially engages with an Organizational Participant in Social Media (such as by retweeting a tweet or sharing a photo on Facebook) the Organizational Participant may, at any time, ask Broomball Canada to cease this engagement.
7. When using Social Media, an Organizational Participant must model appropriate behaviour befitting the Organizational Participant's role and status in connection with Broomball Canada.
8. Removing content from Social Media after it has been posted (either publicly or privately) does not excuse the Organizational Participant from being subject to the Discipline and Complaints Policy.
9. An individual who believes that an Organizational Participant's Social Media activity is inappropriate or may violate policies and procedures should report the matter to Broomball Canada in the manner outlined by the Discipline and Complaints Policy.
10. All conduct and behaviour occurring on Social Media may be subject to the Discipline and Complaints Policy. However, any violation of this Policy that may be considered "Prohibited Behaviour" or "Maltreatment" (as defined in the UCCMS) when the Respondent is an Organizational Participant who has been designated by a Program Signatory, including Broomball Canada, as a UCCMS Participant (as defined in the Discipline and Complaints Policy), will be handled pursuant to the policies and procedures of the OSIC, subject to the rights of Broomball Canada as set out in the Discipline and Complaints Policy and any applicable workplace policies.

Broomball Canada's Responsibilities

11. Broomball Canada has a responsibility to understand if and how Persons in Authority and Athletes are using Social Media to communicate with each other. Persons in Authority and Athletes may need to be reminded that behaviour in Social Media is still subject to the Code and Social Media Policy.

12. Complaints and concerns about the behaviour of a Person in Authority or Athlete in Social Media can be addressed under the Discipline and Complaints Policy.

Guidelines

13. The Guidelines in this section provide Persons in Authority and Athletes with tips and suggestions for Social Media use. Persons in Authority and Athletes are strongly encouraged to develop their own strategy for Social Media use (either written down or not) and ensure that their strategy for Social Media use is acceptable pursuant to the Code.
14. Given the nature of Social Media as a continually developing communication sphere, Persons in Authority and Athletes must use their best judgment when interacting with Social Media. These Guidelines are not hard and fast rules or behavioural laws; but rather recommendations that will inform individuals' best judgment.
15. Any behaviour on Social Media which violates the Code may be subject to discipline.

Social Media Guidelines for Persons in Authority

16. Persons in Authority should consider the following guidelines to inform their own strategy for Social Media use:
  - a) with Minor Athletes, ensure that parents/guardians are aware if some interactions may take place on Social Media and the context for those interactions, and give parents/guardians the option to prohibit or restrict communication in this space;
  - b) attempt to make communication with Athletes in Social Media as one-sided as possible. Be available for Athletes if they initiate contact – Athletes may wish to have this easy and quick access to you – but Persons in Authority should never impose themselves onto an Athlete's personal Social Media space;
  - c) ensure all Social Media communication is professional, unambiguous, and on-topic. Avoid emojis and unspecific language that can be interpreted in multiple ways;

- d) choosing not to engage with Social Media is an acceptable strategy. Be prepared to inform Athletes (and/or parents/guardians) if you will not engage in this space and explain which media you will use to communicate with them;
- e) Athletes will search for your Social Media accounts. Be prepared for how you will respond when an Athlete attempts to interact with you on Social Media;
- f) annually review and update the privacy settings on all your Social Media accounts;
- g) consider monitoring or being generally aware of Athletes' public Social Media behaviour to ensure compliance with the Code and this policy;
- h) never demand access to an Athlete's private posts on Twitter, Instagram, or Facebook;
- i) do not send friend requests to Athletes. Never pressure Athletes to send you a friend request or follow your Social Media accounts;
- j) if you accept a friend request from one Athlete, you should accept these requests from all Athletes. Be careful not to show favouritism on Social Media;
- k) consider managing your Social Media so that Athletes do not have the option to follow you on Twitter or send you a friend request on Facebook;
- l) do not identify Minor Athletes on publicly available Social Media;
- m) seek permission from adult Athletes before identifying them on publicly available Social Media;
- n) avoid adding Athletes to Snapchat and do not send snapchats to Athletes;
- o) do not post pictures or videos of Minor Athletes on your private Social Media accounts;
- p) be aware that you may acquire information about an Athlete that imposes an obligation of disclosure on your part (such as seeing pictures of Minor Athletes drinking during a trip);

- q) if selection decisions and other official team business are announced on Social Media, ensure they are also posted on a less-social medium like a website or distributed via email;
- r) never require Athletes to join Facebook, join a Facebook group, subscribe to a Twitter feed, or join a Facebook page about your team or organization;
- s) if you create a page on Facebook or Instagram for your team or Athlete, do not make this Social Media site the exclusive location for important information. Duplicate important information in less-social channels (like on a website or via email);
- t) exercise appropriate discretion when using Social Media for your own personal communications (with friends, colleagues, and other Persons in Authority) with the knowledge that your behaviour may be used as a model by Athletes;
- u) avoid association with Facebook groups, Instagram accounts, or Twitter feeds with explicit sexual conduct or viewpoints that might offend or compromise your relationship with an Athlete; and
- v) never misrepresent yourself by using a fake name or fake profile.

Social Media Guidelines for Athletes

17. The following tips should be used by Athletes to inform their own strategy for Social Media use:

- a) Set your privacy settings to restrict who can search for you and what private information other people can see.
- b) Coaches, teammates, officials, or opposing competitors may all add you to Facebook or follow you on Instagram or Twitter. You are not required to follow anyone or be Facebook friends with anyone.
- c) Avoid adding Persons in Authority to Snapchat and do not send snapchats to Persons in Authority.
- d) If you feel harassed by someone in a social medium, report it to your coach or another Person in Authority with your organization.

- e) You do not have to join a fan page on Facebook or follow a Twitter feed or Instagram account.
- f) Content posted on a social medium, relative to your privacy settings, is considered public. In most cases, you do not have a reasonable expectation of privacy for any material that you post.
- g) Content posted to a social medium is almost always permanent – consider that other individuals may take screenshots of your content (even snapchats) before you can delete them.
- h) Avoid posting pictures of, or alluding to, participation in illegal activity such as: speeding, physical assault, harassment, drinking alcohol (if underage), and smoking cannabis (if underage).
- i) Model appropriate behaviour in Social Media befitting your status as a) an Athlete, and b) a member of your organization and its governing organizations. As a representative of your organization, you have agreed to the Code and must follow that Code when you post material and interact with other people through Social Media.
- j) Be aware that your public Facebook page, Instagram account, or Twitter feed may be monitored by your organization, coach, or by another organization and content or behaviour demonstrated in Social Media may be subject to sanction under the Discipline and Complaints Policy.
