

Discipline Policy

Applicability

This policy applies to discipline matters that may arise during the course of the RAB's business, activities, and events including, but not limited to, competitions, practices, tryouts, training camps, travel associated with the organization activities, and any meetings.

Burlington Ringette Association (RAB) is committed to providing an environment in which all individuals involved with Burlington are treated with respect. Membership in RAB, as well as participation in its activities, brings many benefits and privileges. At the same time, individuals and participants are expected to fulfill certain responsibilities and obligations including, but not limited to, complying with the RAB, SRRA, and Ringette Ontario policies, bylaws, rules and regulations, and Code of Conduct and Ethics. Noncompliance by individuals can result in severe damage to the integrity of the association and sport and may be subject to sanctions pursuant to this policy and policies in place by our governing bodies. Since discipline may be applied, RAB provides individuals with the mechanism outlined in this policy so that complaints are handled fairly, expeditiously and affordably.
