TRANSGENDER POLICY

The CMBA Executive hereby adopts the following relating to transgender athlete participation in CMBA events.

Policy Considerations:

The CMBA Executive and Member Zones hereby affirm the following policy considerations:

1. Transgender student athletes should have an equal opportunity to participate in sports.
2. The overriding sporting objective is, and remains, the guarantee of fair competition; however, restrictions on participation are appropriate to the extent that they are necessary and proportionate to achieve this objective.
3. The integrity and fairness of the competition shall be considered and protected to the greatest extent possible.
4. The integrity of women's sports should be preserved.
5. Policies governing sports should be based on sound medical knowledge and scientific validity.
6. Policies governing the participation of transgender athletes in sports should be fair in light of the variation among individuals in strength, size, musculature, and ability.
7. The legitimate privacy interests of all athletes should be protected.
8. The medical privacy of transgender athletes should be preserved.
9. Pre-Pubescent athletes may be granted eligibility to participate in their affirmed gender.
10. Athletes may not switch back and forth between male and female competition/competitive gender. Athletes will not be permitted to "change back" to their previous competitive gender once their application to compete in CMBA events has been approved and they have been granted the requested eligibility.
11. If not eligible for female competition the athlete should be eligible to compete in male competition.
12. These guidelines are a living document and will be subject to review in light of any scientific or medical developments.

TRANSGENDER PARTICIPATION POLICY

For purposes of this policy, the following terms shall mean:

“Female-to-Male” (FTM) - adjective to describe individuals assigned female at birth who are changing or who have changed their body and/or gender role from birth-assigned female to a more masculine body or role.

“Gender Identity” - A person’s intrinsic sense of being male (a boy or a man), female (a girl or woman), or an alternative gender (e.g., boygirl, girlboy, transgender, genderqueer, eunuch, etc.). Since gender identity is an emotional, rather than a physical characteristic, one’s gender identity is not necessarily visible to others.

“Sex” - Sex is assigned at birth as male or female, usually based on the appearance of the external genitalia. When the external genitalia are ambiguous, other components of sex (internal genitalia, chromosomal and hormonal sex) are considered in order to assign sex.

“Transgender” - An adjective to describe an individual whose gender identity (one’s internal psychological identification as a boy/man or girl/woman) does not match his or her sex assigned at birth.

“Transgender Female” is a person whose sex at birth is male but who self identifies and lives as a female (male-to-female or MTF).

“Transgender Male” is a person whose sex at birth is female but who self identifies and lives as a male (female-to-male or FTM).

PROCESS FOR PARTICIPATION IN CMBA EVENTS

As a part of the athlete’s written request for accommodation, the athlete must include a statement affirming the gender identity of the athlete. While the request must be submitted by a parent or guardian if the athlete is under age 18, the athlete may also submit a personal statement in support of his or her request. The athlete must provide a confirmation of gender identity from a medical professional and if applicable, must provide any information related to the athlete’s transition status and/or intent.

All medical information provided pursuant to this policy shall be kept strictly confidential as is consistent with medical privacy laws.

Appeal

Any member zones may appeal the eligibility of a transgender athlete on the grounds that the athlete's participation in CMBA events would adversely affect competition or safety.
