

Tonight the Premier, the Minister of Health, and Dr. Hinshaw provided a COVID-19 update on new restrictions being implemented provincially effective 12:01am Thursday, September 16, 2021 and 12:01am Monday, September 20, 2021.

Effective 12:10am Thursday, September 16, 2021

Children's Indoor Sports:

- Indoor activities are permitted, with requirements for two-metre physical distancing and masking where possible, and symptom screening for participants.
- In alignment with the new restrictions, Vivo's masking policy will remain in effect. Children are permitted to remove their mask during on ice activities.
- Due to construction spectating to align with 1/3 capacity means no more than 1 spectator per child, and all spectators must be social distanced.
- There are no restrictions on outdoor activities.

It is the clubs responsibility to communicate the changes to their membership and to ensure compliance.

Places of worship:

- Places of worship must limit attendance to one-third fire code capacity.
- Face masks will be mandatory and there must be two-metre physical distancing between households or two close contacts for those living alone.

It is the responsibility of the organization who booked the space to communicate the changes to their membership and ensure compliance.

Adult lessons and leagues:

- Vivo is reviewing all aspects of the Order to fully understand what this means. Early indications show adult activities in a group setting will not be permitted as of 12:01am Monday, September 20, 2021. Vivo will confirm the specifics once the Order is received.

Should you have any questions, please let us know.

Kind Regards, the Premier, the Minister of Health, and Dr. Hinshaw provided a COVID-19 update on new restrictions being implemented provincially effective 12:01am Thursday, September 16, 2021 and 12:01am Monday, September 20, 2021.

Effective 12:10am Thursday, September 16, 2021

Children's Indoor Sports:

- Indoor activities are permitted, with requirements for two-metre physical distancing and masking where possible, and symptom screening for participants.
- In alignment with the new restrictions, Vivo's masking policy will remain in effect. Children are permitted to remove their mask during on ice activities.
- Due to construction spectating to align with 1/3 capacity means no more than 1 spectator per child, and all spectators must be social distanced.
- There are no restrictions on outdoor activities.

It is the clubs responsibility to communicate the changes to their membership and to ensure compliance.

Places of worship:

- Places of worship must limit attendance to one-third fire code capacity.
- Face masks will be mandatory and there must be two-metre physical distancing between households or two close contacts for those living alone.

It is the responsibility of the organization who booked the space to communicate the changes to their membership and ensure compliance.

Adult lessons and leagues:

- Vivo is reviewing all aspects of the Order to fully understand what this means. Early indications show adult activities in a group setting will not be permitted as of 12:01am Monday, September 20, 2021. Vivo will confirm the specifics once the Order is received.

Should you have any questions, please let us know.

Kind Regards, he Premier, the Minister of Health, and Dr. Hinshaw provided a COVID-19 update on new restrictions being implemented provincially effective 12:01am Thursday, September 16, 2021 and 12:01am Monday, September 20, 2021.

Effective 12:10am Thursday, September 16, 2021

Children's Indoor Sports:

- Indoor activities are permitted, with requirements for two-metre physical distancing and masking where possible, and symptom screening for participants.
- In alignment with the new restrictions, Vivo's masking policy will remain in effect. Children are permitted to remove their mask during on ice activities.
- Due to construction spectating to align with 1/3 capacity means no more than 1 spectator per child, and all spectators must be social distanced.
- There are no restrictions on outdoor activities.

It is the clubs responsibility to communicate the changes to their membership and to ensure compliance.

Places of worship:

- Places of worship must limit attendance to one-third fire code capacity.
- Face masks will be mandatory and there must be two-metre physical distancing between households or two close contacts for those living alone.

It is the responsibility of the organization who booked the space to communicate the changes to their membership and ensure compliance.

Adult lessons and leagues:

- Vivo is reviewing all aspects of the Order to fully understand what this means. Early indications show adult activities in a group setting will not be permitted as of 12:01am Monday, September 20, 2021. Vivo will confirm the specifics once the Order is received.