1.0 Meeting Called to order at 07:00 pm

2.0 Old Business

7.1 Review of City of Camrose Regulations to on Ice Activities

- Discussion of the updated information received from the City of Camrose as of this afternoon regarding clarification of on ice activities reviewed. They will only be allowing a maximum of 10 participants on the ice rather than the Hockey Alberta Bulletin 20 – 14 indicating that half ice measures can be put in place so that 20 participants can be on the ice.
- Email to be sent to Jim Cook and Ryan Poole indicating that with these measures in place, Camrose Minor Hockey cannot economically put teams on to the ice as we would require double the number of slots for U11 teams and up and 4 – 5 slots for U9 and below.

7.2 Refund / Credit to minor hockey registrants

- Board members discussed at length the best way to provide a refund to all registrants.

P. Fenrich – "Families that have registered with CMHA will receive a 50% refund which will be applied as a credit to the 2021 - 2022 season unless you notify the CMHA Coordinator. Should the City change its protocol from 10 to 20 participants, those that participate will have the 50% refund reduced accordingly with the cost of the continued ice sessions". CARRIED

- CMHA will try to hold fees as is but it is all dependent on costs outside of CMHA control.

P. Fenrich – That CMHA invoice those teams that booked extra ice during October – December 2020 and have it paid from team fees. U11Tier 1 – 8.75 hours; U13 AA – 5.375 hrs; U13 A – 5.375 hrs; U15 AA – 8.875 hours; U18 AA – 12.25 hours CARRIED
