

Camrose Minor Ball Association is committed to providing an environment in which all individuals, equipment and facilities are treated with respect. Members are expected to conduct themselves at all times in a manner consistent with the values of CMBA. Violations of this code of conduct by any member shall result in immediate disciplinary action, which may take the form of verbal or written reprimand, limited suspension, indefinite suspension, or termination of membership.

Player – Code of Conduct

As a player for the Camrose Minor Ball Association, I will:

- act with integrity in performing all duties owed to the sport as a representative of CMBA
- understand that I am representing myself, my parents, my coaches, my team and the CMBA. With this comes a responsibility to behave and conduct myself appropriately
- play fair, abide by the rules and in the spirit of the game will respect my teammates, opponents, coaches, managers, umpires and spectators
- always treat the equipment and facilities with care and respect
- obey and respect the rules set forth by team officials
- remember that demonstrating or encouraging physical or verbal abuse towards coaches, teammates, umpires, opponents and spectators is not tolerated and may result in my ejection from a game or dismissal from the team
- not use bad language, nor will I harass athletes, coaches, umpires, other spectators, or club officials by way of emails, voice messages, text messages (including “tweeting”) and social network postings (Facebook, Snapchat, etc.)
- do my best to be a true team player by being supportive of my teammates and by not criticizing or placing blame on others
- display good sportsmanship at all times
- acknowledge that coaches and umpires are performing their duties in the best interest and abilities to the development of the players and the sport. I will accept and respect their decisions.
- understand that any violations to this code or any governing rules, policies or programs will result in disciplinary actions
- understand that if I am dismissed from the team, there will be no refund of any part of the registration or team fees paid.
