

LC Operations Manual

14.11 COPYRIGHT OF MATERIAL

14.11.1 All materials produced by or for LC are copyright protected for the sole benefit of LC, for example, the Association, through its coaching sector, develops technical materials to assist in the coaching development in Canada. This information is developed on a project by project basis, using the resources of the Association. In addition to coaching materials, other publications are produced by the Association to assist in the development of the game. These materials, including all publications, marks, symbols and logos are the exclusive intellectual property of the Association.

14.11.2 The Association is entitled to a copyright of this intellectual property under the Copyright Act (R.S. 1985,c.C-42). As the Association has used its resources to produce the material, it also requires control of the material so that it may recover the costs of producing the materials through the sales of its products.

14.11.3 All materials produced by the Association shall have the following inscribed on the finished product:

Copyright © _____ (year) by the Lacrosse Canada

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced or transmitted in any form or by any means, electronic or mechanical, including photocopying, recording or any information storage or retrieval system without the permission in writing from the Lacrosse Canada.

14.11.4 Any reproduction of the Association's materials by MAs without the express written approval of the Association will constitute a Code of Conduct Violation as outlined in this Manual.