Registration Fees include practice ice-time (2 hours/week/player), game ice-time (as per MHL League play - Novice and higher), official fees, use of team jerseys, home and away socks (Novice and higher) and tournament fees as specified in the Constitution.

All Families of CMHA are expected to Fundraise by selling Trip tickets. Tickets required to be sold by each family depends on registration numbers each year. Typically a family sells between 5 to 8 tickets valued at $120 which are distributed in December. One Fundraising caution cheque per family is due at time of registration in the amount of $150 post dated for no later than December 15th. Please visit www.canoraminorhockey.com to view the Constitution for more details on player and parent responsibilities.

Receipts will be issued upon request to the Treasurer.
