

INSURANCE COVERAGE

Alberta Soccer covers its Members with Commercial General Liability, Sport Accident and Excess Travel (out-of-country is now a mandatory purchase) Insurance protection.

The Alberta Soccer insurance policies apply specifically to REGISTERED amateur Members participating as Players*, Managers, Coaches, Trainers, Executives, General Members or Officials, Volunteers, Auxiliary Workers and Employees in practice or competition in the sport under the supervision and direction of the Policyholder (Alberta Soccer Association). Both indoor and outdoor seasons are covered. Please note, district and community directors are not covered.

: Alberta Soccer does NOT cover players who participate in USport and ACAC.*

Additional information:

- If you have been asked to provide a certificate of insurance for a facility you are renting for soccer purposes, please complete and submit the Third Party Facility Insurance Request Form (coverage applicable in Canada only).

COMMERCIAL GENERAL L

The coverage will pay on behalf of named insured (Alberta Soccer), and the additional insureds, where applicable, all sums of money which the insureds shall become legally obligated to pay as compensatory damages for actual bodily injuries to participants, spectators, and other members of the public. This also includes property damage the insurer(s) shall become legally obligated to pay. The policy does not cover defense of criminal code charges.

If you, as an Alberta Soccer Member, are served with a Court-originated statement of claim, you must contact Alberta Soccer Executive Director.

Activities Covered Under the Alberta Soccer CGL Policy

This consists of all Alberta Soccer practices or competitions in the sport under the supervision and direction of the Policyholder (Alberta Soccer Association).

NON-PROFIT ORGANIZATION INSURANCE PROGRAM

BFL Canada has launched an online portal where users can access insurance coverage for protection against damage to their property as well as against the consequences resulting from their organization's activities and decisions. In addition, the directors, officers, employees and volunteers can be protected against bodily injury that they may suffer in the course of their work with the organization.

If you want to access the portal, please click here.
