

CASA Commitment to Diversity and Inclusion

The Central Alberta Soccer Association is committed to developing and fostering an inclusive and diverse environment for all coaches, players, officials, administrators, and spectators. Our organization acknowledges differences in gender, education, and background. It acknowledges individuals' unique life experiences, qualities, and characteristics are fundamental to nurturing an inclusive environment and culture.

We embrace, respect, and value differences in people regardless of gender, age, racial background, disability, or sexual orientation.
