

Maybe it was foreshadowing, but the coaching staff had discussed the strategy in the event they had to pull the goalie to try and tie a game. With 1:23 left in the game, the team got the puck deep into the Rockets zone and goalie Layla Sample raced to the bench so they could put on the extra attacker. Never giving up, the Cyclones threw everything they had at the Rockets. Team captain, Chloe Kennedy found herself with the puck on her stick in the slot and fired a hard, high shot that beat the goalie...but clanged off the goal post. The buzzer rang and Cyclones were beaten again 1-0.

Pub Night Prize - Keyva's grandmother took home what may have been the most coveted raffle prize of the night. She could hardly wait to get home and put this one-of-kind piece on her wall!

Even though it was another loss, the Cyclones knew their effort was better in this game. The Stittsville Rockets are one of the top teams in their division and they gave them everything they could handle, outshooting them 14-11. The disappointment of another loss was there, but there was also some pride knowing they had the Rockets on the ropes. There was nothing to complain about following this match. The Cyclones hope that the time to learn lessons is over...they want to move on to teaching some lessons now.

DON'T FORGET!

The Brampton tournament is quickly approaching. Be sure to reserve your room via the link that Jess sent out.

For those not familiar with the tournament, travelling teams need to be prepared to play on the Friday morning (Good Friday) at 8:00am, so reserving the room for the Thursday night is recommended.

Learning to Lead

Captain Chloe Kennedy, Assistants Keira Guthrie, Avery Simpson and Hailey Kovacs have all shown what it takes to be a leader – on and off the ice. It's more than just a letter on the jersey, and they've all really enjoyed the opportunity!