

REFUND POLICY

Withdrawal and Registration Refunds

- Withdrawal for any reason after the ERC teams are formed of that year will result in no refund of the registration fee.
- If the ERC decides to release a player after the team is formed and the player requests a full or partial refund, the amount of the refund, if any, will be determined by the ERC Executive Committee on a case by case basis.
- Concessions may be made for players who are injured before December 1st and are deemed out for the season. A request in writing outlining the rationale for withdrawal shall be presented to the ERC Executive Committee and a decision will be made on a case by case basis.

Player Additions to Roster and Registration Fees

- Where exceptional circumstances justify the addition of a full-time player, a player added to the roster before December 1 will pay full registration fees.
- Where exceptional circumstances justify the addition of a full-time player, a player added after December 1 will pay 75% of registration fees.
- If the player did not evaluate, and exceptional reasons justify the addition of the player, the player will also pay evaluations fees.

Cash calls for player addition or withdrawal

- Team cash calls for player additions or withdrawal shall be determined by the team treasurer in consultation with the team manager. Any dispute on amount by the player or another team member can be submitted to the ERC Executive Committee for determination.
