

FINAL REMINDER of the Elvis Presley tribute show at the Mayfield Dinner Theatre, Sunday evening, March 31. Matt Cage has portrayed Elvis in several sold out theatres across Canada and the USA, including a residency Tribute to the King at the Las Vegas Planet Hollywood. Tickets must be purchased before March 22. I may still be able to get tickets after this date, but no guarantees, the show has had many sellouts and this is the final performance.

Tables and booths are still available in the Centre Gold Section ($107.00 per ticket) and the Right Side 'A' Section ($97.00 per ticket). These prices are discounted $25.00+ less than the box office prices as I purchase a large block of tickets. Each ticket includes a $5.00 gratuity, as per the theatre requirements for large group bookings. If paying for more than one seat please include the name of your guest(s). Feel welcome to share this email with friends and family, book a table for 2, 4 or 6 people. If coming as a single state which group or club you are with and I'll do my best to seat with other group members.

Theatre doors and buffet open at 5:30 pm, the buffet closes and the show starts at 7:30 pm, performance will end around 9:30 PM.

I'll meet everyone in the theatre hallway between 5:15 and 6:00 PM to hand out your tickets.
