

Canada Soccer has established minimum sanctions within the Canada Soccer Discipline Code (CSDC). The CSDC applies to every match and competition organized by SSA and its members and to breaches of the FIFA Laws of the Game, SSA & Canada Soccer By-Laws, Rules and Regulations, Code of Conduct and Ethics and policies and directives in force. It also applies to breaches of SSA and Canada Soccer By-Laws, Rules and Regulations, Code of Conduct and Ethics and policies that do not fall under the jurisdiction of any other body.

All SSA Member Organizations must ensure that any discipline sanctions set forth under their jurisdiction meet the minimum standards of Canada Soccer.

This article outlines sanctions that will be applied for judicial processes under the jurisdiction of SSA. All sanctions listed herein meet or exceed Canada Soccer standards. SSA strives to ensure all participants experience a safe, welcoming, and inclusive sport environment; judicial processes and sanctions delivered consistently, province wide, will support the achievement of this goal. In order to improve consistency province wide we encourage that all SSA Member Organizations use the sanctions for misconduct as described in the chart below as minimums.

As such, FC Regina has adopted Saskatchewan Soccer Association's Discipline Code as per Canada Soccer guidelines.

Application of Sanctions:

Under the sanction column, if it indicates both a sanction and fine, and other conditions, then all must be applied.

When the list below indicates a fine and a sanction separately the judicial body may apply either or both.
