6 - 8 and above	5:15 PM

Future FCR Game Release Dates

Release Date	Covers Games From
March 5	March 15 - 31

Self-Assigning - the guidelines for selecting games are as follows:

Within the first 48 hours of game release:

- Referees may select up to two (2) games per day, a maximum of four (4) per week (Sunday to Saturday).
- When officiating full or half-field games, referees must rotate roles between Referee and Assistant Referee, when possible.

After 48 hours:

- Referees are able to select additional games 48 hours after the first release time. You do not have to wait for the exact time of your referee grade release.
- Referees may select additional games beyond the initial cap; however, they are limited to a maximum of five (5) games per day. After completing their third (3rd) game in a single day, a mandatory one (1) hour break must be taken before beginning their fourth (4th) match.
- When officiating full or half-field games, referees must rotate roles between Head Referee and Assistant Referee, when possible.

Conflict of Interest is the responsibility of the official to ensure that they are not officiating games in which they are considered in conflict: SSA Code of Ethics

To avoid any situations of perceived bias, a referee is not permitted to officiate a game for a team that they have participated with for one full season after that season has ended. This includes participating as a registered player and also as a guest player.
