

CALGARY JUNIOR FIELD HOCKEY MINIMUM COACHING STANDARDS

MINIMUM STANDARDS FOR HEAD COACHES

For head coaches who are training athletes 16 years of age and younger, in a Recreational Context, CJFH is committed to abiding by the FHC minimum coaching standards, as detailed in the FHA Strategic Plan. That is, each team or training group must have a coach on the field that is at minimum fully NCCP Community Trained. Visit thelocker.ca for more details on the National Coaches' Certification Program (NCCP).

This level includes FHC Minimum Coaching Standards for Alberta Programs

→ 3 Safesport modules:

- a) Making Ethical Decisions + online evaluation
- b) Making Headway in Sport
- c) CAC Safesport,

→ 1 multi sport module:

- d) Fundamental Movement Skills,

→ FHC sport specific online course:

- e) FHC Community Course,
2 parts: i) Coach Initiation In Sport; ii) FHC Community ELearning Module

→ CJFH also recommends that coaches complete the free NCCP elearning module:

- f) Emergency Action Plan

→ Coaches are also required to have

- a valid First aid training Level I + CPR
- a current Criminal Record Check (with Vulnerable Sector Search) on file with FHA current to the past 3 years. Please contact executivedirector@fieldhockey.ab.ca for a Volunteer Referral letter prior to applying

MINIMUM STANDARDS FOR ONFIELD/BENCH VOLUNTEERS

Volunteers that directly interact with athletes, such as assistant coaches, coaches in training, junior coaches, bench parents, onfield trainers etc. must have the following requirements completed prior to the season

→ Complete the 3 NCCP Safesport modules:

- a) Making Ethical Decisions + online evaluation
- b) Making Headway in Sport
- c) CAC Safesport,

→ Have a current Criminal Record Check (with Vulnerable Sector Search) on file with FHA current to the past 3 years. Please contact executivedirector@fieldhockey.ab.ca for a Volunteer Referral letter prior to applying

NOTE: Untrained Safesport Coaches and Volunteers may not work with athletes.

Please contact league@fieldhockey.ab.ca if you have any questions about your certification