ACCOUNTABILITY TO A PLAYER-CENTERED ENVIRONMENT

LEAD BY EXAMPLE

Model good sportsmanship, respect, and commitment to growth to set the tone for players.

CREATE A SAFE ENVIRONMENT

Allow players to make mistakes without judgment and foster community through constructive feedback

ENCOURAGE GROWTH MINDSET

Praise effort and process rather than results to promote a growth mindset within players and coaches.

INDIVIDUALIZE FEEDBACK

Tailor feedback and coaching to each player's specific strengths, learning styles and the needs of the community

CREATE A SPACE FOR REFLECTION

Players reflect on learning, their strengths, and how they can apply their strength to the community.

ENHANCE LEADERSHIP CAPACITY

Empower players and coaches to take accountability for the learning environment.

A photograph of two young soccer players standing on a grassy field. The player on the left is a Black male with short, curly hair, wearing a dark gray sleeveless jersey and holding a white soccer ball with colorful patterns. The player on the right is a white male with long, wavy hair, wearing a dark gray sleeveless jersey with the 'LONESTAR' logo and a star graphic. The background shows trees and a clear sky. Overlaid on the image is a quote in white, bold, sans-serif font.
