Annual General Meeting Proxy Form

Note: Please download this form to your desktop before completing it.

This document is to be used by the Gloucester-Cumberland Girls Hockey Association to appoint a proxy in their absence. A proxy is used when a member is unable to attend the AGM and may delegate their voting power to another member within the association.

A member is defined as players, parents, or guardians in the house and competitive programs at GCGH as per Para 9 of the bylaws. Voting rights are assigned to players if they are over 18 yrs of age and to parents/guardians for players under 18. Please refer to the GCGH Bylaws for a more detailed description.

I, hereby acknowledge that I am a member in good standing with the Gloucester-Cumberland Girls Hockey Association and that the person designated to represent me has the authority to vote for me at the Annual General Meeting.

I, _____, am the parent/guardian of _____ and give my proxy to _____ so that they may vote on my behalf on any matters that may arise at the Gloucester- Cumberland Girls Hockey Association AGM on _____.
