

Policy title:	Conduct Policy
Adopted:	Replaced original policies: Harassment (June 2010), Conflict of Interest (June 2010), Complaint Resolution Policy (November 2009) and several previous Code of Conduct Policies in September 2017 (revised August 2018, December 2018, December 2019, January 2020, May 2020)
Current version approved by Board of Directors:	December 22, 2021
This Policy has been prepared by Canada Artistic Swimming (CAS) and is applicable to CAS, its PTSOs, Affiliated Organizations, and Registrants. This document cannot be modified without consultation with and approval by CAS.

This Policy should be read together with the CAS Safe and Welcoming Sport Policy Suite Overview, including the definitions that are set out in the Overview.

Purpose

1. The purpose of this Conduct Policy is to foster a positive, safe, and respectful work and sport environment where:
 - a) The Organizations’ values and expected standards of behaviour are understood, communicated, and lived by all Individuals and Organizations;
 - b) There is adherence to all applicable laws, regardless of where the Activity or Event takes place; and
 - c) The Individuals’ conduct is ethical, transparent and fosters confidence in the integrity of the sport and the Organizations.

2. The purpose of this Policy is also:
 - a) To ensure the decisions and actions of Individuals and Organizations are consistent with the CAS mission, vision, values, and policies; and
 - b) To define those actions and behaviours that are not permitted so that they are known to Individuals and Organizations and can be avoided.

Statement of Values

3. Individuals and Organizations are expected to conduct themselves in all matters involving or impacting the Organizations or where they may be seen to be representing these Organizations, with integrity and in a manner that is consistent with these Organizations' values and the highest standards of behaviour upon which the Organizations' image and reputation rests.

4. Individuals and Organizations will:
 - a) Acquaint themselves with the CAS, PTSO or Affiliated Organization's mission, vision and values and behave at all times in a manner consistent with them;
 - b) Adhere to all federal, provincial, municipal and host country laws;
 - c) Not participate in, condone, or engage in dishonesty, fraud, deceit, misrepresentation, or illegal activities;
 - d) Not knowingly disseminate false or misleading information about an Organization or Registrant;
 - e) Act, when appropriate, to correct or prevent practices that are unjust, discriminatory, or otherwise in contravention of this Policy;
 - f) Cooperate with internal or external investigations of concerns of possible misconduct under this Policy by providing honest, accurate, complete, and timely information;
 - g) Act in a responsible manner in relation to the media and with respect to the content of personal websites and information posted on social media sites including Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, and YouTube;
 - h) Provide a healthy and safe work and sport environment for the Athlete and everyone involved in the sport;
 - i) For Individuals, provide a valid police record check and other background screening checks as required by CAS or the Organization's Screening Policy;
 - j) Support the principles of the Responsible Coaching Movement;
 - k) For Individuals, complete the Respect in Sport Training Program or authorized equivalent as required by CAS, a PTSO or an Affiliated Organization; and
 - l) Comply, as applicable, with the Organizations' By-laws, Policies, and rules.

Application

5. This Policy applies to all Individuals and Organizations, including:
 - a) CAS, PTSOs, Affiliated Organizations and Registrants;
 - b) Directors, officers, committee members and Volunteers of the Organizations;
 - c) Employees and anyone under contract with the Organizations and anyone attending their offices or other workplaces for work or training-related purposes;
 - d) All Athletes eligible for selection to, or forming part of, any team participating in competitions or any other Activities or Events over which the Organizations have jurisdiction;
 - e) Coaches, Officials, Support Personnel and Persons in Leadership;
 - f) Parents, spectators and Related Parties involved in the Organizations' Activities and Events.

6. This Policy applies at all times, wherever an Organizations' Activity or Event takes place, which includes their respective offices as well as external locations in Canada and abroad. Activities and Events include:
 - a) Meetings of the Organizations' Board of directors and all committee or Coach meetings, whether in person, by phone or other virtual means;
 - b) Annual meetings, special meetings, hosted conferences, or clinics;
 - c) Employment in an Organization, and all meetings and social events hosted or organized by the employer;
 - d) Participation in sanctioned competitions including related training and organized group travel;
 - e) All selection, trials and assessment processes and training or practice time, whether inside or outside Canada;
 - f) Any other Activities or Events as defined in the Safe and Welcoming Policy Suite Overview.
7. This Policy also applies to Individuals' and Organizations' conduct outside of the Organizations' Activities or Events when such conduct adversely affects relationships within these Organizations and their work and sport environment or is detrimental to the integrity, image, or reputation of the Organizations or the sport of artistic swimming. Such applicability will be determined by the Organizations at their sole discretion.

Commitment to Non-retaliation

8. Individuals and Organizations are expected to report or raise any concerns about any misconduct, and to work together to ensure a positive, safe, and respectful work and sport environment. There will be no retaliation from anyone subject to this Policy for speaking up and making a truthful report of actual or possible misconduct, for participating in an Investigation, or for exercising one's legal rights.

Obligation to Report

9. It is a breach of this Policy if an Individual or Organization knows about an incident of misconduct but fails to report it. Failure to report such misconduct to the ICA or the applicable Organization's Complaint Triage Officer may result in disciplinary action by the Organization.
10. If there are reasonable grounds to suspect a Minor or Vulnerable Person needs protection because of Maltreatment including sexual, physical, or emotional Harassment, neglect, or other risk of harm, Individuals and Organizations have a legal duty to immediately report the suspicion or relevant information to the ICA or the applicable Organization's Complaint Triage Officer and, when applicable and required by law, to the appropriate agency or the police. The ICA or Complaint Triage Officer may report the Reported Incident or Complaint to the appropriate agency or the police.

General Behaviour Expectations and Standards

Anti-Doping

11. The Organizations have adopted the Canadian Anti-Doping Program (CADP) which strictly prohibits the use of restricted drugs or performance-enhancing drugs and methods. In addition, they abide, when applicable, by the FINA doping control rules, the World Anti-Doping Code, and other sports organizations' anti-doping rules.
12. All Individuals have a responsibility to:
 - a) Comply with the CADP and, when applicable, the FINA doping control rules, the World Anti-Doping Code and any other sports organizations' anti-doping rules and refrain from committing any anti-doping rule violations as defined in these anti-doping rules;
 - b) Respect any penalty enacted pursuant to a breach of the CADP, FINA doping control rules, World Anti-Doping Code or other applicable sports organizations' anti-doping rules, whether imposed by CAS, the CCES or any other sport organization; and
 - c) Refrain from associating with any person for the purpose of coaching, training, competition, instruction, administration, management, athletic development, or supervision of the sport, who has committed an anti-doping rule violation and is serving a sanction involving a period of ineligibility imposed pursuant to the CADP, the FINA anti-doping regulations, the World Anti-Doping Code or other applicable sports organizations' anti-doping rules and recognized by the CCES.

Confidentiality

13. Individuals and Organizations may have access to Confidential Information. Confidential Information includes:
 - a) Personal information or protected information about Individuals or Organizations as defined in the Organization's Privacy Policy;
 - b) Information that is not known or available to the Individual or Organization on a non-confidential basis prior to its disclosure to the Individual or Organization including financial information, strategic plans, intellectual property, and information related to the programs, business, or affairs of the Organization; and
 - c) Information that is not known or available to the general public other than as a result of disclosure by the Individual or Organization.
14. Individuals and Organizations have a duty to take reasonable steps to secure Confidential Information and not to disclose such Confidential Information, including once an Individual ceases to work, provide services, or volunteer for the Organization. Individuals must not use information that is gained due to their relationship with the Organization for personal profit, or in order to further any personal, private, or public interest.
15. Any intentional or negligent disclosure of Confidential Information to persons who the Individual or Organization knew, or ought to have known, should not have received the Confidential Information, or misuse of such Confidential Information, may result in sanctions under this Policy and the Organization's Discipline and Complaint Policy and Procedure, as applicable.

16. Individuals and Organizations are required to maintain any information related to a Complaint, Appeal, or other dispute including information related to any Complaint under the Harassment, Discrimination and Maltreatment Policy strictly confidential unless authorized under the Organization's By-laws or Policies. Any breach of such confidentiality reported to the ICA or the applicable Organization's Complaint Triage Officer as a breach of this obligation by the Individual and Organization may result in an immediate sanction.

Equity and Inclusion

17. The Organizations are committed to promote the benefits, principles and opportunities of Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion (EDI) in all their Activities and Events. All Individuals and Organizations share a responsibility to provide a sport and work environment that fosters these values contemplated in CAS's Equity, Diversity and Inclusion Policy and will ensure that they are key considerations when setting policies and developing, updating, or delivering their programs.

Discrimination, Harassment and Maltreatment

18. Individuals and Organizations are expected to support a work and sport environment that fosters respect and promotes everyone's dignity and self-esteem. The Organizations recognize that Discrimination, Harassment and Maltreatment as defined in the Safe and Welcoming Sport Policy Suite Overview and the UCCMS can poison the work and sport environment, not only for the group targeted, but for many other Individuals. Individuals must recognize that it is the impact of the behaviour on a recipient that is paramount, not the intent of the person who engages in the perceived offending behaviour.
19. All Individuals and Organizations subject to this Conduct Policy shall also comply with the Discrimination, Harassment and Maltreatment Policy.
20. A Reported Incident or Complaint of Discrimination, Harassment and Maltreatment will be managed in accordance with the applicable Organization's Discipline and Complaint Policy and Procedure, and will be considered to be a Major Infraction as defined in Safe and Welcoming Sport Policy Suite Overview, unless the ICA or the applicable Organization's Complaint Triage Officer determines otherwise.

Conflicts of Interest

21. Individuals subject to an Organization's Conflict of Interest Policy are expected to respect and comply with the Conflict of Interest Policy and act in the best interests of the Organization by avoiding Conflicts of Interest. They must avoid situations where their personal interests or the personal interests of their Related Parties could interfere or conflict, directly or indirectly, with their obligations to the Organization.

Drugs, Alcohol, Cannabis, Tobacco and E-smoking Products

22. Individuals or Organizations must never provide, promote, condone, or ignore substance abuse, the non-medical use of drugs, or the use of performance enhancing drugs or methods, or, in the case of Minors, the use of alcohol, cannabis, tobacco or e-smoking products.
23. The use of alcohol, non-medical cannabis, tobacco, or e-smoking products in the workplace is prohibited, subject to any required accommodation.
24. Individuals will refrain from consuming alcohol, cannabis, tobacco, or e-smoking products while engaged in the Organizations' Activities and Events or including sanctioned competitions.
25. Individuals will exercise moderation when consuming alcohol or cannabis products in adult-oriented social situations associated with the Organizations' Activities or Events where Minors are present.

Cannabis

26. Laws passed by the federal government and each Canadian province and territory define restrictions on recreational cannabis use including minimum cannabis use age and where cannabis may be consumed. Individuals and Organizations will adhere to all federal, provincial, and territorial laws on cannabis use.
27. The CCES has cannabis on its list of prohibited substances and cannabis use by any Athlete subject to the CADP may be considered doping. All Individuals have a responsibility to understand and observe the CCES rules on cannabis use.

Social Media

28. Individuals and Organizations are expected to act in a responsible manner in relation to the content of personal or Organizations' websites and information communicated and shared on blogs and over social media sites. In addition, Individuals and Organizations are also subject to other specific Policies that address social media.
29. Individuals and Organizations will:
 - a) Acquaint themselves with the CAS, PTSO or Affiliated Organization's mission, vision, values, and policies and behave accordingly;
 - b) For Individuals, protect their privacy and take care to understand the social media site's privacy settings and terms of service;
 - c) Take reasonable steps to secure Confidential Information and to not disclose such information;
 - d) For Individuals, maintain a clear distinction between personal and professional social media use including having two separate accounts for these purposes where required;
 - e) Ensure that all content is appropriate for viewing by Minors;
 - f) Ensure all online dialogue and interactions with Minors or Vulnerable Persons observe guidance on one-on-one interactions;
 - g) Avoid at all times using social media for cyber-Discrimination, Harassment or Maltreatment; and

 - b) Any sexual offences;
 - c) Any major offences of assault;
 - d) Any offence involving trafficking of illegal drugs or substances listed on the Canadian Anti-Doping Program's prohibited list.
40. In the case of any confirmed, relevant criminal offence committed by any Individual involved in artistic swimming, the Organization shall have full discretion to impose any sanction, permanent or provisional, as it deems appropriate in the circumstances without the necessity of complying with its Discipline and Complaint Policy and Procedure.

Communication

41. The Organizations will ensure this Policy is well publicized, including on the Organizations' websites.
42. The Organizations will ensure that this Policy is communicated to those who will be responsible for upholding it as well as those who will be responsible for its implementation.

Public health

43. Individuals and Organizations shall comply with all public health orders and guidelines in force in the jurisdiction in which each Activity or Event takes place and shall also comply with any further or additional public health measures, rules and requirements mandated by the Organizations.

Policy Review and Coming into Force

44. CAS will conduct a review of this Policy every two years or as decided by its Board. Every time the Policy is reviewed, CAS shall ensure input is sought and considered.
45. This Policy when duly adopted by CAS's Board shall come into force when published on CAS's website following a specific communication indicating that this Policy is now in force.

46. Individuals and Organizations shall be responsible for reading, understanding, and adhering to this Policy.
