

Registration Information

Are You New To Hockey In Edmonton?

Hockey Edmonton has twenty-six associations across the city, each with their own established boundaries that offer hockey programs in various divisions and tiers of play.

Your MHA will depend on your residential address and can be verified for you by the various association Registrars. Along with their respective websites the Registrars have a wealth of available program information, fees, requirements, etc.

Divisions of Play

DIVISION	AGE
	(as of December 31 of the Current Season)
INITIATION	4, 5 & 6 years of age
NOVICE	7 & 8 year olds
ATOM	9 & 10 year olds
PEEWEE	11 & 12 year olds
BANTAM	13 & 14 year olds
MIDGET	15, 16 & 17 year olds
JUNIOR	18, 19 & 20 year olds
JUNIOR FEMALE	18, 19, 20 & 21 year olds

What organization do I register with?

Generally, a player's residence as of September 1st of the hockey season will determine where the player registers. The associations Registrars can help you verify this. In addition, the respective websites have a wealth of program information on fees, requirements, etc.

Hockey Edmonton is divided into geographic Districts, each of which have one or more Operating Areas that program for Edmonton youth – male and female.
