

Innisfail Minor Hockey Assn. Apparel Policy

Appendix 1

As the exclusive supplier of all apparel for IMHA, TBS must be given the right of first refusal with regards to purchasing track suits, jackets, pants, hats, etc. That is to say, anyone or any team purchasing apparel must first approach TBS with their desired choice of apparel. In the event that TBS is unable to provide the requested apparel or some kind of similar option, it may be possible to purchase the apparel at another retailer. Board approval is required to purchase apparel at another retailer.

Refusing to purchase apparel from the exclusive supplier, TBS, may not be based on brand name, color, size designation or any other reason deemed inappropriate by the IMHA Board of Directors.

As part of this contract, TBS is also the preferred supplier for all IMHA tournaments and/or other events. TBS must be afforded the right of first refusal when purchasing items for tournaments such as, but not limited to: hats, toques, t-shirts, towels, medals, trophies, etc. In the event that TBS is unable to provide the requested merchandise or a similar option, it may be possible to purchase the merchandise at another retailer. Board approval is required to purchase this merchandise from a different retailer.

Refusing to purchase merchandise from the exclusive supplier, TBS, may not be based on brand name, color, size designation or any other reason deemed inappropriate by the IMHA Board of Directors.

The team officials of any team that violates this apparel policy will be suspended indefinitely and face a team fine (up to $500) pending an in person hearing with the IMHA Board of Directors
