

FEE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

2 0 2 1

The Innisfail Fee Assistance Program has been made possible by the generous contribution of the Innisfail Solar Corporation/Elemental Energy to help local residents experiencing financial hardship gain access to arts, culture, wellness and recreation activities.

Up to $200/eligible resident can be utilized annually to support programs fees or memberships. Possible programs include:

- Swimming lessons, passes or membership
- Drop in activities or programs such as basketball, climbing, pickleball or meditation
- Community bus tickets
- Registration for sports, dance, yoga, fitness, music, art, or learning or enrichment classes.

Eligible applicants or households include those receiving unemployment benefits, Assured Income for the Severely Handicapped (AISH) or those falling below the Low Income Cutoffs.

Confidential applications can be emailed or delivered to the Town Office.

FEE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

What is it?

The Innisfail Fee Assistance Program is available thanks to the Innisfail Solar Corp Community Benefit Fund in partnership between the Town of Innisfail and Elemental Energy. The goal is to bring down barriers for residents wanting to participate in local programming and events. The program will pay for full or partial fees for programs or events located in the Town of Innisfail however some exceptions may apply.

Who can apply?

- Must be a resident of the Town of Innisfail.
- Open to all ages - parents must fill out application for children ages 0-17 years old.
- Residents that are low income, unemployed, on AISH or currently receiving income support through the provincial government are all eligible. Applications are assessed using the Low-Income Cut-Off Table below:

How & When to Apply

Applications can be made at any time before the program has started and will be reviewed by the Community Services Department. Applicants will be notified of the decision soon after it was received. Please allow 1-2 weeks for processing.

A person can apply to a maximum of $200 annually per person.

Funds will be given directly to the program on behalf of the applicant. We encourage applicants to cover any affordable portion of the program fee.

Note if the participant does not attend the program, future applications may be affected.
