

Sean MacDonald Bio (Director at Large – Officials)

Sean MacDonald was born and raised on the East Coast and has called Ottawa home for the past 25 years. Over the last nine years, he has been a dedicated volunteer with the Kanata Minor Hockey Association (KMHA), contributing in a variety of roles including coaching, team management, leading development, etc. and recognized as '25 KMHA Volunteer of the Year.

Sean recognizes the critical role that officials play in the game and is committed to supporting a strong, respectful, and well-developed referee program. He believes in fostering an environment where young officials feel supported, confident, and motivated to continue developing within the game.

Professionally, Sean works in the high-tech sector, where he has developed strong skills in leadership, communication, and strategic planning. He looks forward to bringing this experience to the KMHA board as Director at Large - Officials, with a focus on strengthening the referee program and contributing to a positive experience for all participants, on and off the ice.
