Levels of Play

House League: All registered players are drafted onto teams at their age level. The teams play a schedule within their league from approx. end of April to mid-June.

Summerball (aka All-Star): Players who want to continue to play try out for a spot on team(s) in their age group. Once the tournament teams are selected, they then play a summerball schedule with other leagues from around the Province with a final tournament to name a champion. In some age groups, there may be three levels of play; AAA, AA and A. The AAA teams play in the “Road to the World Series” path; while AA and A play to be named the Provincial Champion.

Regional Championship: The AAA winner of each division from across Canada compete in a tournament (locations rotate amongst divisions) to name a Canadian Champion.

World Series: The team named Canadian Champion moves on to compete at the World Series for their age group

*Cost for advancing to the Canadian Championship Tournament and the World Series (travel, housing, meals) are paid for by Little League Baseball
